

TWENTY-TWO DEAD IN NAVY DISASTER

RELIEF EFFORTS HELP STRICKEN AREA OF JAPAN

DEATH LIST DOUBTFUL

Accurate Estimates of Dead Are as Yet Un-
obtainable

Washington, Sept. 10.—To add to the horrors of the devastation in the Japanese earthquake area, an epidemic of fever has broken out in Tokyo, according to a despatch to the state department today from Ambassador Woods.

Shanghai, Sept. 10.—Reconstruction of Japan's devastated area is rapidly getting under way. Heroic relief measures are being taken by the government to alleviate misery and suffering throughout the 20,000 square miles devastated Saturday a week ago.

At least 60,000 persons perished in the disaster. Forty thousand dead have been counted in Yokohama alone, and twenty thousand perished in Tokyo, according to official estimate received in Shanghai. The injured will exceed 150,000, these official reports indicate.

Individual burial of the dead is out of the question. To expedite the work of disposing of thousands of corpses temporary crematories are being erected.

All efforts are being made by government and business interests to establish a semblance of normal conditions throughout the empire. In pursuance with this policy the leading banks in the stricken region have been instructed by the government to open their doors and attempt to conduct business as usual. All banks throughout the empire have been granted a 10-day moratorium on all payments in excess of 100 yen ($60). The majority of financial vaults, strong boxes and safes in Tokyo and Yokohama are believed to have escaped serious harm.

Finance Minister Inouye announced at Kyoto, temporary capital of Japan, that the Japanese relief fund to date had passed the $15,000,000 mark. In addition to the popular subscription the imperial family has raised a donation of 10,000,000 yen ($50,000,000) to aid their afflicted people. Everyone of the numerous official and private residences of the imperial family has been thrown open for the housing of thousands of refugees.

Three American destroyers sailed from Yokohama with 300 American refugees for Kobe. At Kobe the problem of caring for thousands of refugees is becoming extremely acute. There is a great shortage of accommodations and the food supply is not plentiful.

Shanghai Chinese raised more than $100,000 to date for Japanese relief. The local Shrine membership has contributed $5,000 for the same purpose. All steamship companies are carrying relief supplies and provisions free of charge. The American colony of Shanghai is taking a leading part in organizing aid for Yokohama and Tokyo. Peking dispatches state that the Chinese government has lifted the export tax on all relief commodities going to Japan.

For the Albaugh taxation bill—W. H. Albaugh, Troy, author of the bill; Robert A. Taft, Cincinnati, and Senator George E. Kryder of Henry County.

Against the old age pension bill—George E. Pomeroy, Toledo, president of the Ohio Board of Commerce; C. W. Patterson, Findlay, president of both the Ohio and National Retail Dry Goods association, and C. A. Dyer, Columbus, of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation. Arguments on the other side of each proposal are being drafted by the committees in charge of the circulation of petitions.

FEDERAL COURT MOVES WITH SPEED IN TRIAL OF FOUR CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

Cleveland, O., Sept. 10.—Moving with the noted speed of the federal courts, a jury to try Samuel A. Hoskins, prominent Columbus attorney; Joseph A. Shearer, Columbus, former federal prohibition director; Fred Counts, former federal prohibition agent at Cleveland and his brother, A. Frank Counts, jointly indicted on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act, was sworn in by Judge D. C. Westenhaver in Federal District Court here at 11:10 this morning.

The indictments, upon which the four went on trial charge that approximately $60,000 was paid to A. Frank Counts and $22,700 to Hoskins for services in securing approval of permit to withdraw alcohol for Louis and Abraham Auerbach, heads of the "Million Dollar Hair Tonic Company," now serving time in Atlanta Penitentiary, following conviction of frauds said to have netted them hundreds of thousands of dollars. Samuel Rembrandt, a Cleveland attorney, also convicted of an offense against the Volstead act, together with the two Auerbachs, will be among the 111 witnesses to be examined by the government.

District Attorney A. E. Bernstein was assisted by Miles F. Evans and Martin McCormick, assistant district attorneys, while ex-Judge William L. Day, Luther Day, and Charles E. Belcher, of Columbus, appeared for the defense.

Hoskins, who has been seriously ill, came into court on crutches.

ISSUE WARNING AGAINST UNION IN COAL FIELDS

Commission Recommends
Plan to Avert Strikes—
Report is Made

Washington, Sept. 10.—"The legislative, judicial and executive branches of this government must not permit a union of operators, a union of miners, nor a union of both, to become greater than the union of the United States."

This is the warning sounded by the United States coal commission in its report to the president and congress on its investigation of the constant strife in the coal industry. The report is signed by John Hays Hammond, chairman; Thomas R. Marshall, Clark Howell, George Otis Smith, Edward T. Devine, Charles P. Neill.

The commission's study was made under congressional orders for the purpose of determining the facts regarding the causes of strikes. It "does not deem it either necessary or advisable," however, "to attempt to fix ultimate responsibility." "Many, if not all, on both sides are at fault," the report asserts, "and all have some excuse arising from the weaknesses and passions of human nature."

The commission says it can not too strongly condemn the custom of permitting either operators or miners to furnish deputy sheriffs, policemen or other public officials not paid out of the public treasury. Therefore, the time has come, the commission urges, when the federal government must step in adequately to protect the rights of the public, which transcend those of both the mine workers and mine owners.

The commission points out that "both the operators' corporations and the miners' unions derive their right to exist from the common consent of the people of this country," and adds: "In their dealings with each other they must, therefore, take into consideration the fact that the general public has some rights which they are bound to respect. They can not combine to prevent the mining of coal, nor can they agree to such outrageous prices as will work a distinct hardship upon the citizens."

As the remedy for the conditions it found to exist, the commission recommends voluntary arbitration. But it vigorously urges against clothing the arbitral body with any discretionary powers. Certain standards, it says, should be adopted to guide the arbiters.

Among the principles suggested in this connection are: All contracts must be freely and voluntarily entered into, and when so made each party should be required to scrupulously observe them; right of a man to work without union interference must never be interfered with and the state must furnish him protection; right of collective bargaining likewise to be protected, but unions must not coerce or intimidate non-union men to join their organizations; operators must not be permitted to break up unions other than by argument or advice; a living wage, and duty of both sides to the public to protect it from cold by producing coal.

WORK OF FEDERAL SLEUTHS.
Columbus, Sept. 10.—Federal prohibition agents operating in Ohio made 135 arrests in August, according to a report submitted to Acting Director H. M. Paul by F. K. Norwood, chief enforcement officer. There were 38 prosecutions in the month, no cases being tried in either Cleveland or Cincinnati as the federal court was not in session. Total fines were $14,650, taxes assessed $69,221.35 and penalties assessed $51,999.14.

GREECE ACCEPTS COUNCIL DECISION IN ITALY AFFAIR

Athens, Sept. 10.—The Greek reply to the council of ambassadors' terms, which was transmitted to the English, French and Italian legations, accepts all the demands of the conference of ambassadors and expresses the hope that Italy will evacuate Corfu at the earliest possible moment.

Colonel Plastiras, chief revolutionary dictator of the Greek government, declared: "The Greek government welcomes the decision of the council of ambassadors and is ready to carry it out. The government is fully confident that the final decision on reparations will be on a basis of Greece's original offer, because we have information which incontrovertibly establishes that Albanians were responsible for the Janina murders. This information will soon be made public. If the Italians refuse to respect the decision of the ambassadors and remain in Corfu and make further advances on Greece, we will fight to the last drop of our blood. Greece will ask for compensation for the Corfu murders, but it is doubtful if it will be granted, because a great state dealing with a weak one disregards justice."

DIVORCES ARE ON INCREASE IN OHIO

Columbus, Sept. 10.—According to a report issued by the federal census bureau, divorce is on the increase in Ohio. While the number of marriages in Ohio in 1922 was only slightly greater than in 1916, there was an increase of more than one-third in the number of divorces granted. During the calendar year 1916, the number of marriages in Ohio was 52,592 and the number of divorces granted was 7,907. The corresponding figures for 1922 were 53,206 marriages and 10,182 divorces.

Franklin county is cited by the census bureau as one of the Ohio counties where the divorce court has outdistanced Dan Cupid. In Franklin county there were 3,805 marriages in 1922, as against 3,999 in 1916, which was not an extraordinary percentage of increase. But in the meantime the number of divorces increased nearly 70 per cent, the exact figures show that in Franklin county 1,137 divorces were granted in 1922, as against 674 in 1916.

GERMANY'S OFFER IS TURNED DOWN

Paris, Sept. 10.—"France refuses Germany's offer of new guarantees in place of the Ruhr," declared Premier Poincare, speaking at Danville. "We will remain in the Ruhr. We will keep what we have until we are paid. Last December Cuno offered to start private negotiations between the French and German industrialists, but it was decided that French business men could not talk to Germany until the latter had satisfied the French government's demands. This opinion still holds good. We can not have economic treaties until Germany demonstrates genuine good faith."

MOTHER SHOTS SON TO SAVE HIM

A unique shooting affray has occurred in Chicago where Mrs. Rosa Simiz shot and seriously wounded her son Dezzo, 19, "to save him from a life of crime."

She fired when her wayward son told her he intended to become a bandit and that he never intended to work. Public sympathy was strongly with Mrs. Simiz.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS ELECTS IRELAND INTO MEMBERSHIP

Geneva, Sept. 10.—The League of Nations assembly today unanimously elected Ireland to membership. Decision to admit Ireland was made unanimously upon motion by M. Journeval, of France. President William T. Cosgrave, of the Free State Daily Eireann mounted the platform and began a speech in Gaelic amidst an ovation.

FESS ADDRESSES AMERICAN LEGION STATE CONVENTION

Springfield, O., Sept. 10.—Voicing the opinion that "a republic, if it hopes to endure, must rely upon its citizens for its national defense, as well as for the conduct of its every day affairs," Governor Donahoe addressed the state convention of the American Legion here today.

"Professional armies are, of course, a necessity, but republics which create professional armies of such size as to impair production and tend toward militarism, invite a condition which will inevitably destroy them, the governor declared. He lauded the Americanization work being done by American Legion members, and promised aid to the legion to obtain relief and justice for disabled veterans of the World War."

Springfield, O., Sept. 10.—"Everything the American soldier fought for is in danger, if symptoms of mob rule, disobedience to law, and unlawful outbreaks are allowed to develop," United States Senator Simeon D. Fess today told 4,000 delegates and visitors to the Ohio American Legion convention at Memorial Hall here today.

"Since the war ended, crime has greatly increased, and mob rule has been quite common. The best method to combat these conditions is by education. The American Legion is the best agency in the country for the promulgation of sound popular opinion based upon a healthy sentiment," Senator Fess declared.

Following district caucuses at the homes of various fraternal organizations in which delegates to the national convention in San Francisco, next month were selected, and committees named, the convention was called to order by State Commander Gilbert Bettman at 11 a. m.

An address of welcome by Mayor John F. Furry, Springfield, preceded speeches delivered by Senator Fess, United States Senator Frank B. Willis, General J. Warren Keifer, Springfield, representing the G. A. R. and General Roy E. Layton, Wapakoneta, representing the Spanish-American War Veterans.

Election of officers Tuesday is expected to be marked by several spirited contests. General Chauncey Baker, Columbus; Daniel Elbert, Toledo; Walter B. Wanamaker, Akron and Gus Chlinger, Toledo, are mentioned for state commander.

SHOTS WIFE AND THEN KILLS SELF

Scituate, Mass., Sept. 10.—H. P. Diser, wealthy ex-army aviator today shot to death his beautiful young wife, Elsie, and then blew out his brains, with a revolver.

According to servants who fled from the palatial summer residence in terror, a violent argument preceded the tragedy.

SCORES INJURED WHEN SEVEN U. S. DESTROYERS WRECKED OFF COAST

San Francisco, Calif., Sept. 10.—Twenty-two dead, scores injured and seven destroyers wrecked today marks the greatest loss in a single disaster to the United States navy in peace times.

In an almost impenetrable blanket of fog the destroyers Delphy, Young, S. P. Lee, Nicholas, Fuller, Chauncey and Woodbury, in single file, formation, piled up on the treacherous rocks off Pedernales Point, two miles from the point Arguello lighthouse in Santa Barbara County. All seven destroyers were a contingent of the eleventh squadron. Ten bodies have been recovered, two of which have been identified as R. A. Conroy, fireman first class, of the Delphy and "Squad," Pearson, fireman first class, also of the Delphy. The names of the other victims have not yet been made public by officials of the twelfth naval district here. The recovered bodies have been sent to San Diego. Thirteen seriously injured are in hospitals in Santa Barbara.

A special train carrying over 500 survivors, officers and enlisted men, is enroute to San Diego.

The task of rescuing survivors from rocks and cliffs in the vicinity of the "graveyard of ships" was completed last night after heroic work on the part of the rescuers, many among

CUT OUT BOOZE TO PAY OFF WAR DEBT

Washington, Sept. 10.—Europe could pay its war debts with comparative ease merely by going on the water wagon, according to Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league.

Mr. Wheeler has just returned from the international anti-alcohol congress at Copenhagen, where he was chairman of the United States delegation. In a formal statement he declared that European nations are "cursed with drink more than with war debts," adding: "If the money wasted for liquor were turned into useful channels, as it is in the United States, the financial problems of these governments could be solved with comparative ease."

England, said Wheeler, is spending about $70 per capita annually for drink, while more than a million are out of work and the building of homes by individuals has practically ceased. Germany, in the opinion of Wheeler, is on the verge of financial and social ruin, "due to beer drinking in excess."

PINCHOT SEEKS TO PREVENT PRICE JUMP

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 10.—Governor Pinchot in a letter to President Coolidge asks that immediate steps be taken by the interstate commerce commission and other federal and state bodies to prevent any increase in the price of coal made necessary by additional costs through the anthracite coal strike settlement from reaching the public. Governor Pinchot insists the total "legitimate" increase in the cost of coal under the terms of the settlement effected is about 60 cents a ton. The operators hold that the 10 per cent wage increase and eight-hour day will add about 80 cents a ton to coal. Ten cents of the increase the governor says should be taken up by all the operators. "Many of them could absorb the whole of the 60 cent increase," writes Governor Pinchot, "and still make abundant profits."

MINERS TO RATIFY AGREEMENT.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 10.—Representatives of anthracite operators and miners agreed upon the terms of a proposed new two-year wage contract. The union scale committee immediately approved the agreement and fixed Sept. 17 as the date for a tri-district convention at Scranton, at which it will be submitted for ratification by the miners. Favorable action by the tri-district convention, union officials said, would result in a reopening of the mines.

CLEVELAND MAN KILLED BY QUAKE.

Kobe, Sept. 10.—Donald H. Herr, an American, from Cleveland, Ohio, was killed at Miyasabita during the earthquake disturbance of last week when a mountain road slid into a gorge carrying with it a shop in which he was purchasing curios.

It was officially announced at 12th naval district that several of the destroyers cannot be salvaged.

The Delphy, leading a squadron of 19 destroyers from San Francisco to San Diego, was caught in a driving fog and unruly currents as she neared the wild spot. She was churning along at about 21 knots an hour. The other destroyers were following calmly in her wake. There was a crash with no warning. The Delphy splintered on the rocks off Point Honda. The destroyers Chauncey, Woodbury, S. P. Lee, Nicholas, Fuller and Young followed her blindly to ruin.

The trim prides of the battle fleet piled up on each other with terrific crashes like giant cordwood being tossed into a heap. The destroyers following the seven that went upon the rocks were warned in time to turn away. Hundreds of men went into the cold darkness and were buffeted like wooden ships against the sharp rocks and steel sides of the other ships.

Hundreds of sensational rescues took place. Chief Boatswain's Mate Peterson of the Young dove into the dark water and swam some distance to the Chauncey with a line. Over this line the men of the Young were sent to safety. Peterson is a hero. Each of the wrecked destroyers carried six officers and about 102 men. The survivors of the crash were in a pitiful state of collapse and fatigue when they swam to the rocks or were pulled ashore.

A relief train from San Francisco arrived and took the edge off their sufferings. Blankets were given to many chilled men and food enough to partially satisfy them was served. Plans are being made to take the men to San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The scenes around Point Honda were in many instances pathetic. Men who had risked their lives in the boiling surf were searching eagerly for their "buddies" and their bunk mates. Barefooted, in rags or with only blankets thrown around their shoulders, they strolled up and down the track of the Southern Pacific railroad. The seven hundred men who were forced to camp on this rocky cliff made for themselves a very picturesque and gypsy-like community. The fortitude of many of the men was amazing. In spite of their scary raiment they smiled at the cold winds which whipped in from the sea. They went down and looked over their former "homes," the destroyers on the rocks, and came back with no word of complaint of their desperate plight.

OVER 4 MILLIONS RAISED FOR RELIEF

Washington, Sept. 10.—More than $4,000,000 has been subscribed to the $5,000,000 fund of the American Red Cross for relief work in Japan, and is expected that the total will be reached before nightfall. Red Cross officials declared this afternoon.

The executive committee of the Red Cross met this forenoon and authorized the purchase of additional supplies to fill cargo space aggregating 500 tons.

JURY FEES EXCEED FINES COLLECTED DURING PAST YEAR

Green County Common Pleas Court collected $740.91 in fines and forfeited recognizances and paid out $1,910.19 in jury fees, during the fiscal year ending July 1, 1923, according to the annual report of Clerk of Courts Harvey Elam.

Fines amounted to $240.91 during the twelfth month and one recognizance amounting to $500 was forfeited. Grand jury fees amounted to $289.16, while petit jury fees in civil cases drew the bulk of money from the jury fund, $1,160.64 being paid those jurors. Criminal case juries were paid $510.80.

Judgments were rendered in 91 actions for civil judgment, for a sum totalling $57,502.90 or an average of $620.70 for each judgment. There were 79 cases for money only, the judgments amounting to $45,137.80 and there were 12 cases in which money was included other than the above for a total of $12,165.10.

Three hundred and two final decrees were rendered during the court year. Two hundred cases were pending in Common Pleas Court at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, 1922, and 360 were filed during the fiscal year for a total of 560 cases. Of these 302 were disposed of 21 were taken to the next higher court and 237 were still pending at the end of the last fiscal year.

There was only one case pending in the Greene County Court of Appeals at the beginning of the fiscal year, but 21 were filed during the year. Of these 15 were disposed of and seven were still pending at the end of the last fiscal year.

The report to the Secretary of State shows three persons were naturalized during the fiscal year, one a former resident of Canada and two from Scotland. All three were white and male.

Vigorous Old Age

WHY separate youth and old age with a deep and ever-widening abyss?

The bloom of youth and the hardy, ruddy glow of Old Age—sixteen and sixty—should be separated only by the span of years and not by varying differences of physical wholesomeness.

Vigorous old age is within the grasp of all. S. S. S. brings that hale and hearty feeling back with a rush. Rich red blood is the greatest enemy of weakening, health undermining Old Age. S. S. S. builds Red Blood Cells. Rich, red blood coursing through your veins sweeps away impurities that retard the proper functioning of your system. Old Age—once a dreaded agony becomes a vigorous, enjoyable, care free time of life.

S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks—scientifically prepared and proportioned. Welcome Old Age when it comes. Be ready to withstand the attacks of diseases that follow in its wake. Meet Old Age with a hearty handshake. A handshake that speaks of well being—of a vigorous, clear thinking, red blooded constitution. S. S. S. is your best friend when Old Age is seen rounding the corner. Get a bottle and drive care and worry away. All leading drug stores carry it. The large size is the more economical.

S.S.S. Makes You Feel Like Yourself Again

Modern "Little Nell" Is Found in Illinois.

Eleven-year-old Margaret Mellon was found living in a dog-kennel on the farm of J. J. Smith of LaGrange, Ill. The girl's mother died in 1919, and her father Lloyd Mellon then living in Chicago wanted the little girl reared in the country. He arranged with the Smiths to give her room and board and to look out for her education. He paid them $200 a year until 1921, when he disappeared. Since that time, it is charged she has been doing all the heavy work on the farm and sleeping with the dogs. Smith was arrested.

CLEVELAND MAYOR ADVERTISES CITY

Cleveland, Sept. 10.—"Welcome to Cleveland—red roamer, mayor."

This pithy parable, lettered in bold black upon a background of brilliant orange blares forth its greeting to everyone who enters the city.

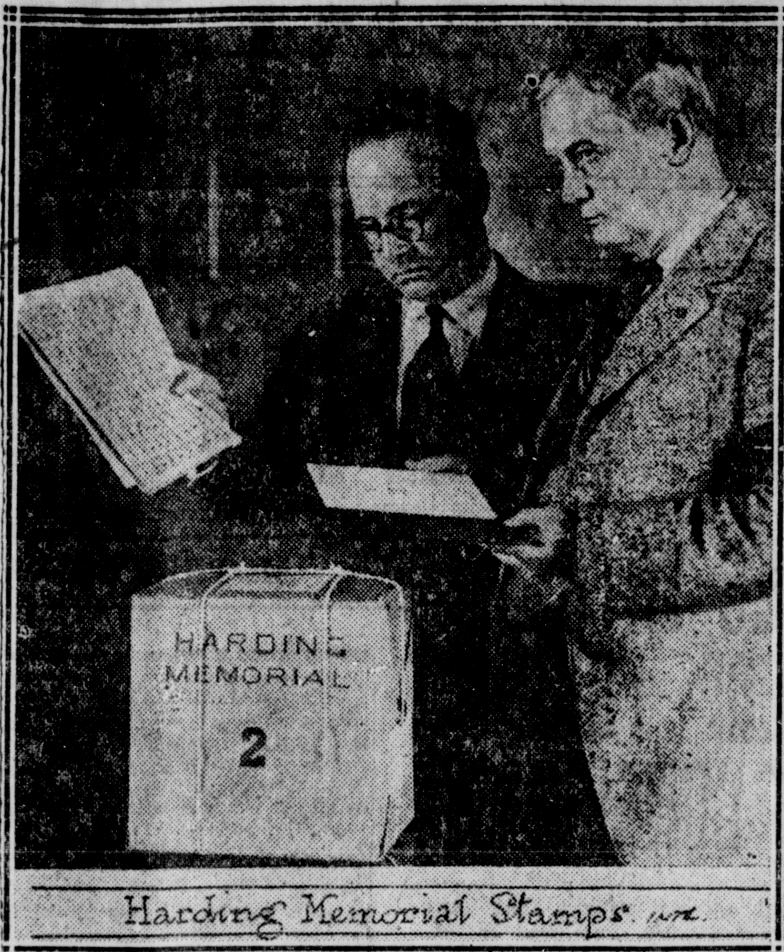

Kohler's caustic color campaign is rapidly transforming the fifth city into the semblance of a futurist's dream. Every municipal waste paper box park bench and safety zone sign now glows under a fresh coat of the famous orange and black combination which replaces the former unobtrusive, orthodox green.

An unlimited amount of "poking fun" in the daily newspapers leaves the erratic Mayor unabashed as he continues to "wield a wicked paint brush." See-saws and high slides on city playgrounds bath houses and even the life guards on municipal beaches—all have undergone the brightening up process.

Conservative citizens who were wont to spend the warm Summer evenings basking in the sylvan beauty and quietude of their favorite neighborhood park are aghast at the blatant metamorphosis which literally "swats one in the eye."

A spot of orange showing through the foliage of one of the tall old trees in Edgewater Park famed as one of the prettiest spots in Cleveland revealed upon close inspection that even the bird houses have not escaped the swath of Mayor Kohler's brush.

TWO DEMOCRATS ON THE TARIFF AND EUROPEANISM.

Two prominent Democratic leaders of New York recently addressed a meeting of Rhode Island Democrats. Senator Copeland handed out the usual line of Democratic dope about the infamies of a protective tariff and the glories of European entanglement for the United States. Then arose former Ambassador James W. Gerard and laid down the following propositions:

"We have got to have something to protect our workmen from the cheap labor of Europe. What is going to happen to the workmen of Rhode Island, of Fall River and other industrial communities if they do not have protection?"

"I am beginning to think that the thing for us to do is to have a great navy and an army of experts and to stand behind them and keep out of other people's affairs. If we would create that great navy, if we would build up a great army and not give them up for anybody—then we could live here in peace."

A contributor to the New York World relates this incident and then wants to know how it is that both of these men can be Democrats and talk such diametrically opposed doctrines.

On this occasion Senator Copeland was handing out political hokum and Mr. Gerard was talking patriotic common sense. But both have precedents for their respective positions. Mr. Gerard talked just as Andrew Jackson would have talked on both the tariff question and the issue of European involvement. He was also in line with Thomas Jefferson. Senator Copeland, on the other hand, followed Colonel Bryan on the tariff and Woodrow Wilson on his Europeanism. Wilson and Bryan are leaders of more recent vintage, but whether or not, in the matter of wisdom, they have anything on Jackson and Jefferson is a problem Democrats will have to settle among themselves.

SAMPLE OF SOUTHERN DEMOCRACY.

Alabama would show a fairly equal division between the parties on the whole vote alone if Alabama possessed a free government. By wholesale crookedness the Republican party has been reduced to an insignificant minority in the state. It does, however, carry some counties where the white vote is heavily predominant. One of these is Winston County. Year after year the Alabama Democratic machine has tried to carry this county by every unfair device with which it is familiar, but in vain. Despairing of success along this line, the Alabama Democratic state machine recently decided that the legislature now in session must pass a special law providing that in this one county the commissioners court, which controls the county government, shall be abolished, substituting therefore a county supervising board to be appointed by the governor. No other county in the state is affected. The bill merely represents the insatiable appetite of this thoroughly disreputable patronage machine for pie and plunder, even when it is necessary to overthrow popular government to get it.

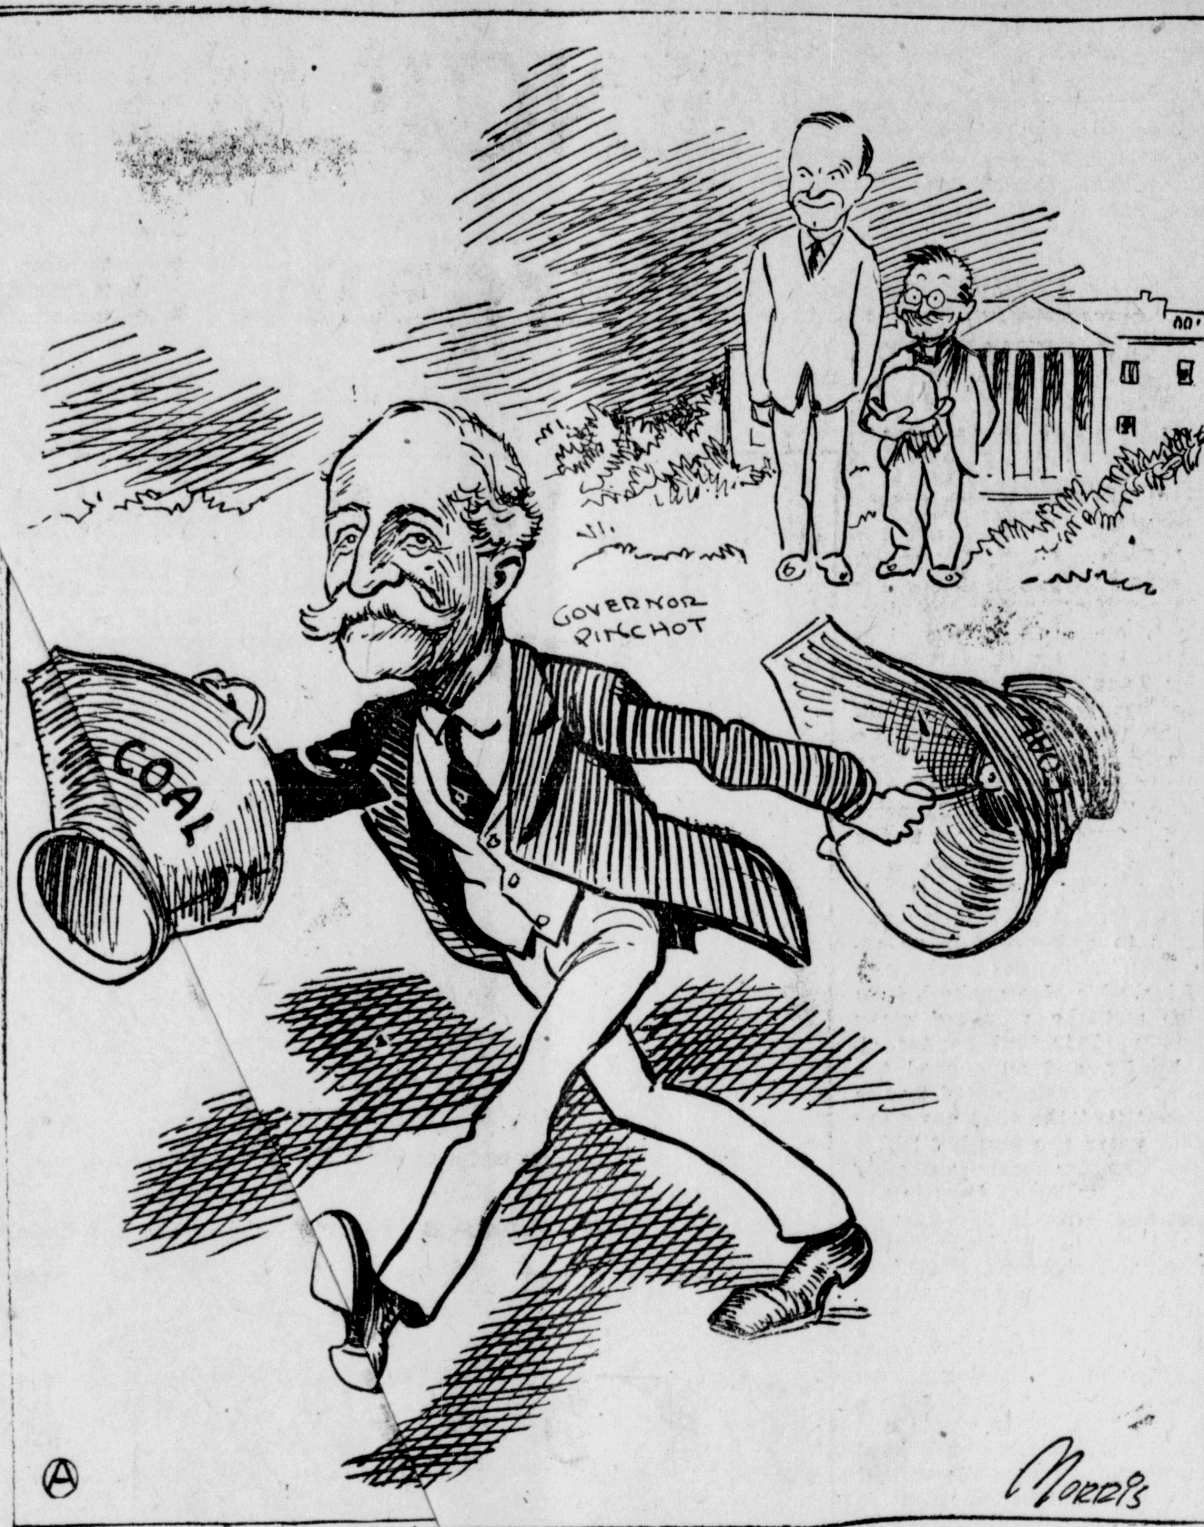

REGARDING NATURAL GAS.

Commenting on the decision of the United States supreme court that the state of West Virginia has no right under federal laws to restrict the supply of natural gas passing from within its border to neighboring states, the Martins Ferry (O.) Daily Times says, editorially:

This valuable commodity has continually been growing scarcer and particularly during the last few years has the condition been alarming. Gas companies have issued frequent warnings to consumers, urging economy in the use of their product, particularly for heating purposes. Rates have been raised and gas company officials have declared that one of the objects of these increases has been to force curtailment of consumption. Many of the public have scoffed at this claim, believing that it was made as an argument to induce authorities to grant the higher rates.

The supreme court decision merely gives Ohio and other states using natural gas an opportunity to prepare for the time, not very far ahead, when nature will shut off the supply.

THE GO-GETTER

1903--Twenty Year Ago--1923

All Xenia seems to be traveling this week. Everyone who can get away from home is either attending the fair at Dayton or the Fall Festival at Cincinnati.

A number of the members of the Catherine Greene Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution held a picnic at the Neff grounds yesterday afternoon.

The Elks are already discussing their going minstrel performance which is to be given Thanksgiving.

Mr. Chas. Fisher will hereafter have charge of the Fisher meat business. Mr. Chas. Buck, who has been associated with the Fisher business for twenty years, in the exception of 5 or 6 months during which he was with Derk has returned to the Fisher store.

LEONARD GETS DECISION.

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard knew too much and punched too hard for Johnny Mendelsohn to much in their eight-round bout, and the newspaper decision early went to the champion. Mendelsohn was trying all the time, and in some of the early rounds got over a number of effective blows, carrying one of the rounds. The sharpshooting Leonard, however, slowed him up with punches as the fight wore along.

ATTACKED BY BANDITS.

Elyria, O., Sept. 8.—Orlando Hurst, 20, son of a prominent Elyria business man, is confined to his home with swollen wrists and ankles and suffering from nervous shock, following his experience when three automobile bandits, to whom he was demonstrating an automobile, attacked him. The trio took $40 from Hurst and made their escape in the demonstrator's automobile.

Baked Macaroni Ramekins: Make a sauce by blending two tablespoons of butter, two tablespoons of flour, and two cups of canned chicken soup; let this boil up for a moment till smooth and thickened, then add to it two and one-half cups of cooked macaroni and turn this mixture into buttered ramekins, or any small individual baking dishes. Fill these small dishes only half full. Now break a raw egg into each dish, on top of the macaroni mixture. Sprinkle sparingly with salt and pepper, add a generous grating of cheese and place the dishes in a moderate oven till firm (about 15 minutes). Serve hot.

Sour Milk Griddlecakes: Sift together one cup of bread flour, one-fourth teaspoon of salt and one-half teaspoon of baking soda; add one cup of sour milk and one well-beaten egg. Drop this mixture by spoonfuls onto a hot, buttered griddle, let cook on one side, then turn to cook on the other. (If you wish to make these cakes with sweet milk instead of sour, use one cup of sweet milk and one teaspoon of baking powder, and no soda.)

Savory Baked Cod: (This recipe may also be used for halibut or haddock.) You will need two pounds of the sliced fish. Dust it lightly with salt and pepper and sprinkle with one teaspoon of lemon juice. Lay the fish in an enamelware pan and sprinkle it with one green sweet pepper and one large peeled onion, both of these vegetables chopped finely and mixed together. Cover with buttered crumbs, pour two cups of hot water into the pan around the fish, and bake in a moderate oven till the fish is tender and the crumbs brown (for fish-slices one inch thick, bake about 40 minutes).

Horseradish Sauce to be Served with Roast Beef: Dissolve one dessertspoon of sugar in one-half cup of vinegar; mix this with one cupful of grated horseradish, then also stir in one teaspoon each of mustard and salt. Mix well and keep in ice box, tightly corked, when not to be used. It will keep for a month in this way.

Swedish Rolls: Make ordinary biscuit dough (following the recipe on your baking powder can.) Roll it out, butter it well and sprinkle it with one cup of sugar to which has been added one tablespoon of ground cinnamon. Roll up the sheet of dough like a jelly roll, then slice it in inch-wide pieces. Place these cut-side-down in buttered pans, sprinkle with more sugar and cinnamon and bake 15 minutes in a hot oven.

Just Folks

by Edgar A. Guest

THE SPIRIT
Hold fast and falter not,
Live out your time;
Nor rust nor rime,
Nor failure's bitter toll
Can scar the soul.

What matters is not loss
Which men deplore,
The sting of bruises sore
Nor hunger unappeased
But is God pleased?

Serve not your pride,
That way lies shame.

Bear if you must men's blame
But, high above the crowd,
Let God be proud.

Not what you've won shall count
In life's strange race;
The humblest post or place
May see its hero crowned
Whom fame had never found.

Glory and hurt are kin,
Forgotten both smiles and tears;
Vanish both smiles and tears;
Be you not turned aside—
God knows what you have tried.

Today's Talk

RUST

When I was a boy, I came across the phrase that "it is better to rust out than to rust out."

Remembering it, I am reminded of the machine that works, for years and years, when cared for and watched, without wearing out. And then I am also reminded of the machine that falls to pieces in short order when left inactive and inviting rust and decay.

Even so precious a thing as friendship must be kept clean and free of all dust and dampness. Or else rust will get to it as it gets to the grosser, material things.

A man may rust in his work, if he neglects and slights it. A mind may rust if it is left to wander in disuse. Even your heart may rust if it refuses warmth and neglects to give warmth to others.

My mind trots back to the story of the great Ulysses who, reaching the evening of his life, sees the glory of past days and spurns the idea "to rust unburnish'd, not to shine in use!" And so his soul longs anew "to sail beyond the sunset" and to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

Rust comes wholly from inaction and neglect.

It seems to be the law of nature that unless there be use and service there must follow decay and death, no matter what the age.

To complain is to rust. To criticize is to die within your soul.

To harbor the past, its failures and its mistakes, and to live in the midst of regrets is to rust. Worry is the worst form of human rust. Shine in use, in work, in the doing of happy things.

No frozen clothes and no chapped hands

CLOTHES washed the Laun-Dry-Ette Way need not be hung outside in winter. The Laun-Dry-Ette's exclusive method of extracting the water by centrifugal force leaves the wash damp instead of wet so it dries quickly indoors.

Some users iron direct from the dryer—others prefer to air the clothes. Do it the way you prefer. In any case the Laun-Dry-Ette will save your hands and your strength.

For you need never put your hands into the water when you wash the Laun-Dry-Ette Way. The machine itself does the rinsing and the bluing as well as the washing. Does both better than human hands can do them. This helps the clothes and saves your hands. Women who use the Laun-Dry-Ette do not get chapped hands.

They never handle WET clothes—only damp clothes.

Investigate. Phone or call and let's give a demonstration of all Laun-Dry-Ette advantages in your own home.

JURY FEES EXCEED FINES COLLECTED DURING PAST YEAR

Green County Common Pleas Court collected $740.91 in fines and forfeited recognizances and paid out $1,910.19 in jury fees, during the fiscal year ending July 1, 1923, according to the annual report of Clerk of Courts Harvey Elam.

Fines amounted to $240.91 during the twelfth month and one recognizance amounting to $500 was forfeited. Grand jury fees amounted to $239.16, while petit juries in civil cases drew the bulk of money from the jury fund, $1,160.64 being paid those juries. Criminal case juries were paid $510.39.

Judgments were rendered in 91 actions for civil judgment, for a sum totalling $57,302.90 or an average of $629.70 for each judgment. There were 79 cases for money only, the judgments amounting to $45,137.80 and there were 12 cases in which money was included other than the above for a total of $12,165.10.

Three hundred and two final decrees were rendered during the court year. Two hundred cases were pending in Common Pleas Court at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, 1922, and 360 were filed during the fiscal year for a total of 560 cases. Of these 302 were disposed of 21 were taken to the next higher court and 237 were still pending at the end of the last fiscal year.

There was only one case pending in the Greene County Court of Appeals at the beginning of the fiscal year, but 21 were filed during the year. Of these 15 were disposed of and seven were still pending at the end of the last fiscal year.

The report to the Secretary of State shows three persons were naturalized during the fiscal year, one a former resident of Canada and two from Scotland. All three were white and male.

She leaves to mourn their loss, three children, seven grand children, seven great-grandchildren, two brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Linkhart of Dayton, Mrs. John Anderson of Wilmington, Harvey C. and Samuel P. Faulkner of Paintersville, and a host of friends.

Mrs. DeVoe united with the M. Church at Paintersville when a girl and remained a member of the church during her entire life. In her earlier years she was an active member and supported the church all through her life.

Mrs. DeVoe was a faithful wife, good, kind and loving mother, always cherishing the interest and welfare of her home.

Her place in the home is vacant, but in our memory shall hang the beautiful picture of that dear and loving face. May her life be a closer tie between you and heaven, and some day you may meet her with the Blessed Savior.

Vigorous Old Age

WHY separate youth and old age with a deep and ever-widening abyss?

The bloom of youth and the hardy, ruddy glow of Old Age—sixteen and sixty—should be separated only by the span of years and not by varying differences of physical wholesomeness.

Vigorous old age is within the grasp of all. S. S. S. brings that hale and hearty feeling back with a rush. Rich red blood is the greatest enemy of weakening, health undermining Old Age. S. S. S. builds Red Blood Cells. Rich, red blood coursing through your veins sweeps away impurities that retard the proper functioning of your system. Old Age—once a dreaded agony becomes a vigorous, enjoyable, care free time of life.

S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks—scientifically prepared and proportioned. Welcome Old Age when it comes. Be ready to withstand the attacks of diseases that follow in its wake. Meet Old Age with a hearty handshake. A handshake that speaks of well being—of a vigorous, clear thinking, red blooded constitution. S. S. S. is your best friend when Old Age is seen rounding the corner. Get a bottle and drive care and worry away. All leading drug stores carry it. The large size is the more economical.

Modern "Little Nell" Is Found in Illinois.

Eleven-year-old Margaret Mellon was found living in a dog-kennel on the farm of J. J. Smith of LaGrange, Ill. The girl's mother died in 1919, and her father Lloyd Mellon then living in Chicago wanted the little girl reared in the country. He arranged with the Smiths to give her room and board and to look out for her education. He paid them $200 a year until 1921, when he disappeared. Since that time, it is charged, she has been doing all the heavy work on the farm and sleeping with the dogs. Smith was arrested.

CLEVELAND MAYOR ADVERTISES CITY

Cleveland, Sept. 10.—"Welcome to Cleveland—red roamer, Mayor.

This witty parable, lettered in bold black upon a background of brilliant orange blares forth its greeting to everyone who enters the city.

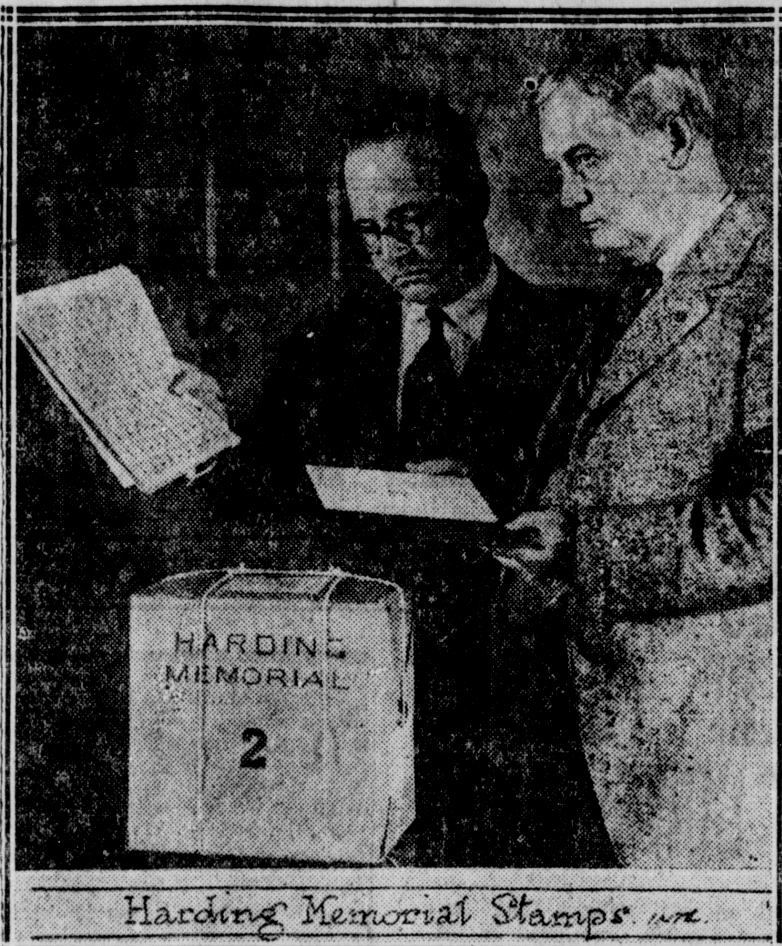

Kohler's caustic color campaign is rapidly transforming the fifth city into the semblance of a futurist's dream. Every municipal waste paper box park bench and safety zone sign now glows under a fresh coat of the famous orange and black combination which replaces the former unobtrusive, orthodox green.

An unlimited amount of "poking fun" in the daily newspapers leaves the erratic Mayor unabashed as he continues to "wield a wicked paint brush." See-saws and high slides on city playgrounds bath houses and even the life guards on municipal beaches—all have undergone the brightening up process.

Conservative citizens who were wont to spend the warm Summer evenings basking in the sylvan beauty and quietude of their favorite neighborhood park are aghast at the blatant metamorphosis which literally "swats one in the eye."

A spot of orange showing through the foliage of one of the tall old trees in Edgewater Park famed as one of the prettiest spots in Cleveland revealed upon close inspection that even the bird houses have not escaped the swath of Mayor Kohler's brush.

The ceremony was witnessed by the members of the bride's immediate family and Mrs. Roy Olinger, of Terre Haute, Indiana. The Rev. V. F. Brown, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, performed the single ring ceremony.

The bride's outfit was her traveling suit of dark blue. Mr. and Mrs. Britton left Saturday evening for an extended Eastern wedding trip. They will reside in Richmond, Indiana, at 16 21st Street. Mr. Britton is connected with the branch office of the Eavey Wholesale Company at Richmond.

Miss Catherine Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foley of West Second Street, has gone to Dayton where she took up work in St. Elizabeth Hospital preparatory to entering the Nurses' Training School which is conducted by the Sisters in charge of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Styles BY LENORE

It is predicted that this year's fur wraps will favor coats, chiefly of the straight, slender silhouette, but extremely supple. Capes are seen in the various displays, and there are some extremely attractive flare hem coats surmounted by a bloused bodice. But the straight coat undoubtedly predominates, both in the Paris displays.

Several novel features are emphasized which will undoubtedly add unusual interest to furs this season.

Mrs. W. J. Oglesbee, Mrs. H. C. Aultman, and Mrs. Darrell Whittington left Thursday for Columbus, and will remain until the first of the week in attendance at the National W. C. T. U. Convention.

FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY EIGHT STUDENTS ENROLLED IN NEW CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Four hundred and thirty-eight Central Senior High School students gathered in the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium in the new school building Monday morning for an assembly and exercises that marked the opening of the fall term and the baptism of the new building.

In spite of the usual gradual increase in enrollment, the effect of the attendance law, the enticing advantages of the new school building and the law-enforced program of physical education, the opening day enrollment fell short of last year's first day enrollment by 11 pupils, the initial enrollment last year being 449.

Launching students off on their year's work in the new buildings, marks a new era in high school education here, for it inaugurates a large and modern school building, with an enlarged curricula and many new features. The school plan this year also returns to the same time system in vogue other places and used here before the crowded condition in the old building forced a change—that of both morning and afternoon sessions for all pupils.

When the third floor of the old building was abandoned because it was pronounced unsafe, conditions were so congested on the other two floors that only half-day sessions for certain classes were in effect. Seniors and juniors pursued their studies in the morning and freshmen and sophomores in the afternoon. School study hours were practically eliminated by the short time allowed in each session. This year all study and recitation periods have been lengthened from 45 minutes to one hour, and with four subjects fixed as a maximum program, students will have two study periods available most of the time.

Mr. Frank Chambliss, medical student, who has been employed at the Dayton State Hospital this summer where he conducted physical examinations for more than 1,300 patients, has resigned and will resume his studies at the Eclectic Medical College, Cincinnati, within a few days.

Miss Katherine Giller, of San Gabriel, Cal., who had been the guest for a week of Mrs. Mildred Prugh of East Church Street, left Friday evening for the East where she will visit for a time before returning home.

WILL PLAY JAZZ

Lovers of real "jazz" music of the "blues" type should have their craving satisfied at City Hall Theater Monday evening when W. C. Hardy, composer of Beale St. Blues and other famous dancing pieces appeared with his original band and accompanied by Sara Martin who made Sugar Blues famous on phonograph records.

Principal Harper C. Pendry called the high school pupils together for the first assembly Monday morning. The program opened with the singing of "America" by the students, led by Miss Sannie K. Haynes, member of the faculty. Prayer was offered by the Oev. Mr. Eynolds who also gave a Scriptural reading. Miss Haynes again led the students in singing "The Star Spangled Banner," which was followed by a salute to the flag.

Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz spoke of the new building and asked pupils to co-operate in an attempt to keep it in its originally fine condition. He also spoke briefly of athletics and the value of clean sportsmanship. Principal Pendry also spoke, briefly, and announced the enrollment of 438 supplemented by the announcement that the first day's enrollment four years ago was but 207.

Following the general assembly there was an assembly of boys in the auditorium and girls in Room 47. Lockers and seats will be assigned pupils Tuesday morning. Classes convened for the beginning of school work at 9:45 o'clock.

The annual "ducking" of freshmen by upper-classesmen initiating them into the mysteries of high school, went merrily on at fitting times and will be continued until all have been initiated. There will be a class fight the latter part of this week, it is announced.

Enrollment figures were not yet obtainable Monday for McKinley Junior High, East High, Lincoln Junior High, Lincoln, McKinley, Spring Hill, Orient Hill and Opportunity Schools, although the total is expected to exceed 2,000 for the public schools. St. Bridget's parochial high school and grade school also began the fall term.

The finest grain foods known

Quaker Puffed Wheat is whole wheat puffed to airy globules, 8 times normal size. Each airy, flaky, flavory grain becomes a food confection.

It is made by Professor Anderson's process. Over 125 million steam explosions are caused in every kernel. Thus the food cells are broken for easy digestion. The elements are fitted to feed.

Every night feed children minerals, vitamins, bran

Quaker Puffed Wheat in milk is the greatest dish mothers ever served. It means whole wheat and whole milk in their most enticing form.

Wheat supplies 12 minerals which growing children must have. Also the bran they need. Milk is rich in vitamins. These are elements you want your children to get daily and in plenty. Then make them tempting in this fascinating dish.

Airy, flaky, nut-like puffs

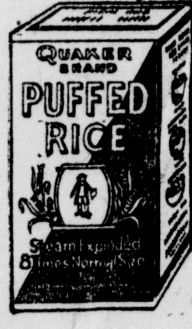

Quaker Puffed Rice is a food confection. No breakfast dainty ever served compares with its delights. Serve with cream and sugar. Mix in every dish of fruit. Crisp and douse with melted butter for hungry children afternoons. Nothing is so good for people as these whole grains puffed.

TWO DEMOCRATS ON THE TARIFF AND EUROPEANISM.

Two prominent Democratic leaders of New York recently addressed a meeting of Rhode Island Democrats. Senator Copeland handed out the usual line of Democratic dope about the infamies of a protective tariff and the glories of European entanglement for the United States. Then arose former Ambassador James W. Gerard and laid down the following propositions:

"We have got to have something to protect our workingmen from the cheap labor of Europe. What is going to happen to the workmen of Rhode Island, of Fall River and other industrial communities if they do not have protection?"

"I am beginning to think that the thing for us to do is to have a great navy and an army of experts and to stand behind them and keep out of other people's affairs. If we would create that great navy, if we would build up a great army and not give them up for anybody—then we could live here in peace."

A contributor to the New York World relates this incident and then wants to know how it is that both of these men can be Democrats and talk such diametrically opposed doctrines.

On this occasion Senator Copeland was handing out political hokum and Mr. Gerard was talking patriotic common sense. But both have precedents for their respective positions. Mr. Gerard talked just as Andrew Jackson would have talked on both the tariff question and the issue of European involvement. He was also in line with Thomas Jefferson. Senator Copeland, on the other hand, followed Colonel Bryan on the tariff and Woodrow Wilson on his Europeanism. Wilson and Bryan are leaders of more recent vintage, but whether or not, in the matter of wisdom, they have anything on Jackson and Jefferson is a problem Democrats will have to settle among themselves.

SAMPLE OF SOUTHERN DEMOCRACY.

Alabama would show a fairly equal division between the parties on the whole vote alone if Alabama possessed a free government. By wholesale crookedness the Republican party has been reduced to an insignificant minority in the state. It does, however, carry some counties where the white vote is heavily predominant. One of these is Winston County. Year after year the Alabama Democratic machine has tried to carry this county by every unfair device with which it is familiar, but in vain. Despairing of success along this line, the Alabama Democratic state machine recently decided that the legislature now in session must pass a special law providing that in this one county the commissioners court, which controls the county government, shall be abolished, substituting therefore a county supervising board to be appointed by the governor. No other county in the state is affected. The bill merely represents the insatiable appetite of this thoroughly disreputable patronage machine for pie and plunder, even when it is necessary to overthrow popular government to get it.

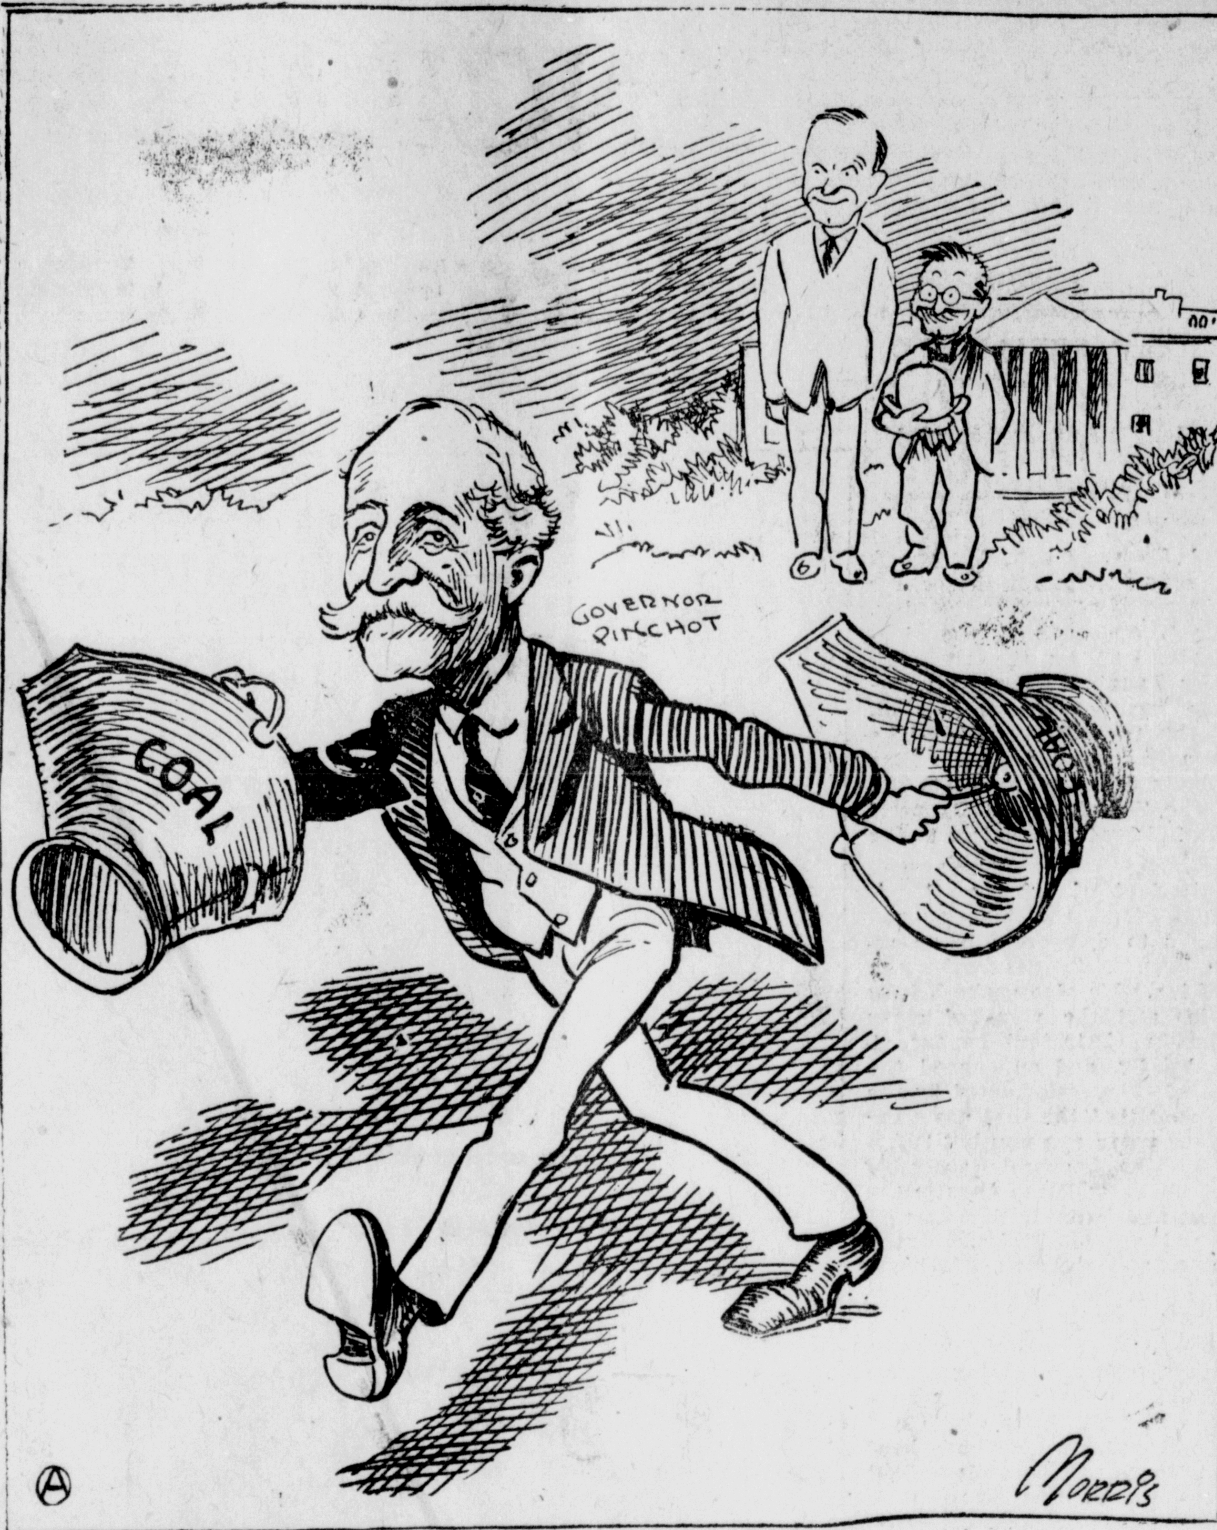

REGARDING NATURAL GAS.

Commenting on the decision of the United States supreme court that the state of West Virginia has no right under federal laws to restrict the supply of natural gas passing from within its border to neighboring states, the Martins Ferry (O.) Daily Times says, editorially:

This valuable commodity has continually been growing scarcer and particularly during the last few years has the condition been alarming. Gas companies have issued frequent warnings to consumers, urging economy in the use of their product, particularly for heating purposes. Rates have been raised and gas company officials have declared that one of the objects of these increases has been to force curtailment of consumption. Many of the public have scoffed at this claim, believing that it was made as an argument to induce authorities to grant the higher rates.

The supreme court decision merely gives Ohio and other states using natural gas an opportunity to prepare for the time, not very far ahead, when nature will shut off the supply.

Baked Macaroni Ramekins: Make a sauce by blending two tablespoons of butter, two tablespoons of flour, and two cups of canned chicken soup; let this boil up for a moment till smooth and thickened, then add to it two and one-half cups of cooked macaroni and turn this mixture into buttered ramekins, or any small individual baking dishes, filling these small dishes only half full. Now break a raw egg into each dish, on top of the macaroni mixture. Sprinkle sparingly with salt and pepper, add a generous grating of cheese and place the dishes in a moderate oven till firm (about 15 minutes). Serve hot.

Sour Milk Griddlecakes: Sift together one cup of bread flour, one-fourth teaspoon of salt and one-half teaspoon of baking soda; add one cup of sour milk and one well-beaten egg. Drop this mixture by spoonfuls onto a hot, buttered griddle, let cook on one side, then turn to cook on the other. (If you wish to make these cakes with sweet milk instead of sour, use one cup of sweet milk and one teaspoon of baking powder, and no soda.)

Savory Baked Cod: (This recipe may also be used for halibut or haddock.) You will need two pounds of the sliced fish. Dust it lightly with salt and pepper and sprinkle with one teaspoon of lemon juice. Lay the fish in an enamelware pan and sprinkle it with one green sweet pepper and one large peeled onion, both of these vegetables chopped finely and mixed together. Cover with buttered crumbs, pour two cups of hot water into the pan around the fish, and bake in a moderate oven till the fish is tender and the crumbs brown (for fish-slices one inch thick, bake about 40 minutes).

Horseradish Sauce to be Served with Roast Beef: Dissolve one dessertspoon of sugar in one-half cup of vinegar; mix this with one cupful of grated horseradish, then also stir in one teaspoon each of mustard and salt. Mix well and keep in the ice box, tightly corked, when not on the table. It will keep for a month in this way.

Swedish Rolls: Make ordinary biscuit dough (following the recipe on your baking powder can.) Roll it out, butter it well and sprinkle it with one cup of sugar to which has been added one tablespoon of ground cinnamon. Roll up the sheet of dough like a jelly roll, then slice it in inch-wide pieces. Place these cut-side-down in buttered pans, sprinkle with more sugar and cinnamon and bake 15 minutes in a hot oven.

Just Folks

THE SPIRIT
Hold fast and falter not,
Live out your time;
Nor rust nor rime,
Nor failure's bitter toll
Can scar the soul.

What matters is not loss
Which men deplore,
The sting of bruises sore
Nor hunger unappeased
But is God pleased?

Serve not your pride,
That way lies shame.

Bear if you must men's blame
But, high above the crowd,
Let God be proud.

Not what you've won shall count
In life's strange race;
The humblest post or place
May see its hero crowned
Whom fame had never found.

Glory and hurt are kin,
Forgotten with the years,
Vanish both smiles and tears;
Be you not turned aside—
God knows what you have tried.

Today's Talk

RUST

When I was a boy, I came across the phrase that "it is better to wear out than to rust out."

Remembering it, I am reminded of the machine that works, for years and years, when cared for and watched, without wearing out. And then I am also reminded of the machine that falls to pieces in short order when left inactive and inviting rust and decay.

Even so precious a thing as friendship must be kept clean and free of all dust and dampness. Or else rust will get to it as it gets to the grosser, material things.

A man may rust in his work, if he neglects and slights it.

A mind may rust if it is left to wander in disuse. Even your heart may rust if it refuses warmth and neglects to give warmth to others.

My mind trots back to the story of the great Ulysses who, reaching the evening of his life, sees the glory of past days and spurns the idea "to rust unburnish'd, not to shine in use!" And so his soul longs anew "to sail beyond the sunset" and to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

Rust comes wholly from inaction and neglect.

It seems to be the law of nature that unless there be use and service there must follow decay and death, no matter what the age. To complain is to rust. To criticize is to die within your soul. To harbor the past, its failures and its mistakes, and to live in the midst of regrets is to rust. Worry is the worst form of human rust. Shine in use, in work, in the doing of happy things.

CLOTHES washed the Laun-Dry-Ette Way need not be hung outside in winter. The Laun-Dry-Ette's exclusive method of extracting the water by centrifugal force leaves the wash damp instead of wet so it dries quickly indoors.

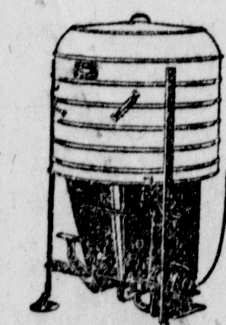

Some users iron direct from the dryer—others prefer to air the clothes. Do it the way you prefer. In any case the Laun-Dry-Ette will save your hands and your strength.

For you need never put your hands into the water when you wash the Laun-Dry-Ette Way. The machine itself does the rinsing and the bluing as well as the washing. Does both better than human hands can do them. This helps the clothes and saves your hands. Women who use the Laun-Dry-Ette do not get chapped hands.

BAYLIFFS ON SHORT END OF COUNT AFTER LAST INNING RALLY

By Wones

The Xenia Bayliffs lost to Harshmanville Sunday at Harshmanville, by a 4 to 3 score in a hotly contested game, that marked the second of the series.

There were a number of Xenia fans at the contest and all that were present did not regret they came. The only thing that marred the game was that the home team failed to carry off the bacon.

The Bayliffs were leading 3 to 2 up until the last half of the ninth inning. Koehly hit for Paul and he did a nice job of it as "Peck" caught one of Herman's fast ones on the nose and the blow was good for four bases. This ried the score, at three all. Duffy filed to Leach, Gaylor singled to center. Coy singled to left. Furnace went back after the ball and it seemed as though he hindered Leach from getting it. Nevertheless the ball dropped in fair ground and Gaylor was safe at second while Coy was hugging first. Twell, Kitty League pitcher and the same lad who twirled for the Bayliffs against Yellow Springs came to bat. Tex took a nice cut at the ball driving the acute into right field. His bing scored Gaylor and the game was over.

Bob Herman was on the rubber for the locals. He was touched up rather freely by the Harshman bunch, who got 14 safe blows, while he fanned seven and walked three. One error was made behind him but this did not lose the game. Foost Clark umpire behind the plate for Harshmanville, and had left his glasses at home and there fore could not see any of Herman's benders that cut the corners of the plate.

Tewell pitched nice ball and was aided quite a bit by the us of emergency which he carried in his pocket. He fanned five while the locals nicked him for ten singles.

Harshman scored first in the fourth round after Duffy grounded out to Early who made a nice stop. Gaylor got in the way of one and took first base. Coy doubled to center advancing Gaylor to third. Twell hit to Shuey who pulled a bad error of judgment by throwing to Furnace instead of getting Twell at first. Gaylor interfered but this was all right with the ump and he was safe at third. Cyphers fanned. Conley singled down the third base line and scored Gaylor and Coy. Berlien walked. Wirtz filed to Stiles who made a nice catch.

The Bayliffs made a nice come-back in the seventh inning which netted them three runs. Leach whiffed. Stiles doubled and Catton singled to right. Herman took three strikes. Longnecker singled to right scoring Stiles while Catton took second. Early singled to deep right which put Catton on third. Furnace singled to center scoring Catton and Longnecker. Early was out at third. Berlien to Cyphers.

Both teams battled on almost even terms until the ninth which proved fatal for Bayliffs' athletes. Tucker was out of the contest with a bruised hand and Shuey took his place at first and filled it well.

Joe Longnecker was the big noise with the ash for the locals. This lad got three bingles out of five trips to the plate and also played nice ball at second accepting four chances with only one fluke. The entire Bayliff team got a hit with the exception of Herman. Early played a whale of a game for the locals at short. He had five chances without the sign or a wobble. Kavanaugh made three nice catches in centerfield for the local nine.

Duffy, Coy, Twell and Peck Koehly were the mainstays with the ash for the Harshman bunch. Koehly knocked a homer and Duffy and Coy each got three hits, two of them being good for two bases. Twell got two safe blows. Coy and Wirtz played best in the field for the winners.

Bayliff and Sam Harshman flipped a coin Sunday night that decided that the rub-off of the series will be played at Washington Park here next Sunday.

LOWERSVILLE WINS OVER COMMERCIALS IN BATTING FEST

Bowersville hopped out of the "rag-weeds" that served as an alibi for the Xenia Commercialis in the first game between these teams and tamed the Xenia Commercialis on a real diamond at Washington Park Sunday.

The game developed into a fiasco in the early frames and when the sixth inning had been reached the score was 23 to 1 with the Bowersville team camped on the high places. After the sixth inning several disgusted Commercialis left the field, while their places were filled by the Bowersville players and Bowersville regulars began batting "wrong-hand ed" for the rest of the game.

"Newt" Murrell still had his Babe Ruth bat and clouted out four out of six hits, including a homer over the left field barrier. Wells pitched well, permitting four hits in the five innings he worked while Glass allowed three in four innings. Bowersville will play the Washington Cubs at Bowersville next Sunday and will play Milledgeville the Sunday following at Bowersville. "Red" Snow will pitch for Milledgeville. He is the same lad who pitched for Buena Vista this season. The score: Commercialis .001000000—1 7 16 Bowersville .524129000—23 19 1 Batteries—Bowersville—Wells, Glass and Murrell; Commercialis—Regan, Sadders, Shaw and Sadders, Shaw.

RESERVES DEFEAT CLARKSVILLE HERE IN EXCITING GAME

The Xenia Reserves defeated Clarksville Sunday afternoon at Reserve Park 7 to 5, as the wind up of a pitchers' duel between Weaver, the locals' crack hurler and Wysong of the visitors.

The visiting flinger sent 12 of the Reserves back to the dugout on strikes while he permitted but seven hits and walked two. Weaver was particularly strong in the pinches, and granted but five hits, fanning eight visiting batters.

A four run lead piled up by the Reserves in the second greatly helped the Reserves. DeAtley whiffed, but F. Hatfield singled and advanced when Osborne dropped Milburn's third strike, both being safe. Green singled scoring Hatfield. S. Hatfield was safe on an attempted fielder's choice, and Weaver doubled scoring Milburn and Green. Thompson muffed F. Leakey's loftier while S. Hatfield scored.

Clarksville picked up two in the third. Dwyer fanned but Wysong singled. Osborne walked and Wysong scored on DeAtley's error on Starr's roller. Millner was safe on Milburn's error, Osborne scoring. Reserves added another in their half when F. Hatfield walked and stole second. Milburn sacrificed him to third from where he scored on a passed ball. Clarksville scored once in the fourth and added two runs in the sixth ending the scoring for the visitors. The Reserves broke the tie in the seventh with two more runs and iced the fracas.

The fielding of Green and Weaver's pitching starred for the locals while Millner and Wysong played well for the visitors. The lineups: Clarksville—Osborne, c; Starr, 3b; Millner, lf; Gray, 2b; Thompson, ss; Dodd, cf; Carroll, rf; Dwyer, 1b; Wysong, 1b; Reserves—F. Leakey, cf; E. Leakey, lf; Jacobs, 3b; DeAtley, 1b; F. Hatfield, 2b; Milburn, ss; Green, rf; Owens, rf; S. Hatfield, c; Weaver, p. The score:

Clarksville	0 0 2 1 0 2 0 0 0	5 5 2
Reserves	2 0 4 1 0 0 0 2 0 x	7 7 8

Summary—Two base hits—Weaver Hatfield, Dodds; Struck out—by Weaver 8; by Wysong 12; Bases on balls—off Weaver 2, off Wysong 2. Hit by pitched ball—Jacobs, DeAtley. Umpire—Milburn.

RED SOX WIN GAME WITH LAST MINUTE RALLY HERE SUNDAY

Going into the ninth frame one run behind, the Xenia Red Sox staged a remarkable comeback in their contest with the Dayton Sweepers at Dickerson Park Sunday afternoon, by evening the count in the last time at bat forcing the fracas into a ten-inning set-to and winning the game in that stanza.

A flock of goose eggs as long as an arctic night was being hung up along the row of squares that represented the score of the locals on the scoreboard, when the colored boys came to life and staged their dramatic finish to the game. In the meantime the Sweepers had stepped out and swept up one run in the fourth inning that looked as big as a seven-ton truck as the game proceeded with the Red Sox powerless to knot the count.

In the last half of the ninth Davis tied the score, scoring on a contributing error by the opposition. As the teams were playing for the entire gate receipts, the excitement was intense at this stage. "King" Davis, pitching ace for the Red Sox held the visitors scoreless in their half of the tenth stanza and the locals went in and sewed up the fracas in their half. Little Peterman singled to start the half and Webb, the Dayton flash, scored him with a long hit that ended the game.

Davis pitched airtight ball most of the way for the Red Sox, giving the visitors but seven widely scattered hits. The visitors threatened to score only once after counting in the fourth. In the eighth Kappe was hit by a pitched ball and traveled to second on Meinhardt's bunt. Kelly sacrificed him to third but Burba hit into a double play, Porter to Davis, that saved the day.

Porter played a great game for the locals featuring with a sensational catch that looked good for four bases. Peterman played bang-up ball and covered everything in his direction. Davis topped off his performance in the box by permitting but one hit in eight innings winding up a perfect afternoon on the mound.

PAINFULLY INJURED IN AUTO CRASH SATURDAY NIGHT

James Miller, Trebeins, received painful injuries when the Ford car he was driving collided with an automobile driven by H. S. Harris, Dayton, colored World War veteran, on the Dayton and Xenia pike near the Greene County Infirmary Saturday night.

Miller received a gash in the right thigh, his back was sprained and his elbow injured. Harris and five other occupants of the automobile were uninjured. Both machines were badly damaged.

Harris and Robert White, colored, who accompanied him, were arrested by Sheriff Morris Sharp and Deputy John Baughn shortly after the accident. C. O. Miller, father of the injured youth, filed an affidavit charging operation of an automobile while intoxicated against Harris before Magistrate J. E. Jones Monday morning. White was charged with being drunk and was fined $15, and costs when he entered a guilty plea before Magistrate Jones Monday morning.

Miller was picked up by passers-by after the accident and taken home and Dr. W. A. Galloway of this city, attended his injuries.

CHURCH TO CONDUCT WEEK END MISSION

Beginning September 26th, an intensive evangelistic campaign called a Week End Mission, will be held in the First Baptist Church in this city, the campaign to consist of a series of special meetings which will begin Wednesday evening, Sept. 26 and continue over the following Sunday.

Dr. C. H. Stull, the Superintendent of Evangelism of the Baptist churches of Ohio, will have charge of the services and will be assisted by three of four other ministers and evangelistic singers. The services each evening will consist of two short sermons and a fine song service.

The meetings will be evangelistic in character and will be like the Week End Missions which have been conducted in other Baptist churches throughout the State, in which an effort is made to concentrate in a few days the work usually done in two or three weeks under the name of a protracted meeting. The company of evangelistic workers that will come here is the same that has conducted the Missions in other parts of the State and services of exceptional interest are expected.

DRIVERS OF SCHOOL TRUCKS ONLY 18

An opinion, received from Prosecuting Attorney, J. Kenneth Williamson, by County School Superintendent H. C. Aultman, overthrows the general opinion, in regard to the employment, of auto drivers, under the age of 21 years.

The belief has been that the recent law, regulating bus drivers, would also apply to school truck drivers. Prosecuting Attorney Williamson's opinion, and that of the Attorney General is that the law does not apply to school drivers. The age of 18 years is considered legal and in cases where the County Board of Education, and County Superintendent are satisfied, certificates may be issued to a boy 16 years of age, who is attending High School. The law requires that all drivers, and teachers as well, shall receive certificates, by the County Educational Board. The certificates are issued on the recommendation of the local Superintendent, and the local board, with the statement that the bond of the driver was approved by them.

MAIL DELIVERY FOR YELLOW SPRINGS

Postmaster C. C. Stephenson of Yellow Springs, received a wire from Washington, Saturday, stating that beginning the first of August, that village would receive the benefits of city mail delivery.

The installation of the new system depends upon Mr. Stephenson's ability to have the houses of the village completely numbered and all the streets named. One carrier will be appointed to distribute the mail through the village, making two trips a day, it is thought. The village has a population of about 1,400.

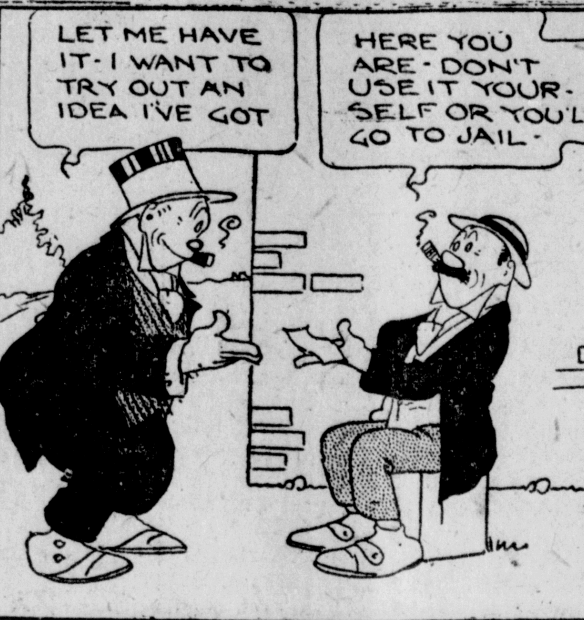

Previously Yellow Springs residents have been compelled to call at the Post Office daily for their mail. Residents of the village have been working for some time to secure the city delivery service.

PRESIDENT MORGAN SPEAKER. Arthur E. Morgan, president of Antioch College, Yellow Springs, left Monday for New Haven, Conn., where he will represent the First Unitarian Church at the thirtieth biennial meeting of the General Unitarian Conference of the United States.

Mr. Morgan is to be one of the speakers at the meeting, which opens Tuesday. Chief Justice William H. Taft is president of the conference.

BRINGING UP FATHER

NEW SYSTEM FOR ENDING TRUANCY IN COUNTY STARTED

A new system of discovering and preventing truancy, throughout the schools of Greene County, was taken up for action, and decided upon, at a meeting of the County Board of Education, held at the office of County Superintendent of Schools, H. C. Aultman Friday.

In taking up the new attendance law requiring the appointment of an officer and assistants to cover the county to prevent truancy, it was found that some of the counties are spending from $2,000 to $5,000 for this service, according to County Superintendent Aultman. The county board, decided at the meeting to save this amount by appointing the County Superintendent and all other superintendents and principals to do this work, in connection with their other duties, and to do it without extra salary, compensation, or cost of any kind.

This will mean quite an increase of work for the superintendents, according to Mr. Aultman, especially in the larger districts. The law provides that the County Superintendent shall take the general direction and responsibility for the work.

Those appointed on the board are H. C. Aultman, D. H. Barnes, county and assistant superintendent; D. S. Lynn, Rath Consolidated; S. E. Shupp, Clinton; J. D. Parker, Cedarville; W. F. Roush, Ross Township; J. W. Gowdy, Jamestown; W. A. Driscoll, Bowersville; H. L. Sams, Caesar Creek; Mr. McKaig, Spring Valley; Gay Wright, Bellbrook; E. O. Barr, Yellow Springs.

FINED IN POLICE COURT

Wayne Baker, Springfield, was fined $2 and costs in Police Court when he was arraigned on charge of driving on the wrong side of a traffic post Sunday night. Patrolman Simms and Thompson brought Baker and a party of two men and three women to Police Headquarters on the charge.

ANNOUNCE CHARGE

Mr. Lawrence Rachford was named Outside Guard of Xenia Council, No. 1801 Knights of Columbus at the recent election instead of Mr. Bryan Monahan, it is announced by officials of the Council.

INMATIONS GIVEN FOR RELIEF WORK

Three hundred and fifty two dollars was voluntarily contributed Saturday to the Japanese Relief fund, handed through the Greene County Chapter of the American Red Cross, Mrs. Lewis M. Allison, chairman, announced Monday.

"The results are most pleasing," said Mrs. Allison, "in view of the fact that no campaign is being made. No one is being solicited, and all money has been voluntarily given and there have been persons in the stores to receive donations only one day."

"The churches and towns in the county have not yet reported."

ECLIPSE OF SUN WILL BE VISIBLE

Xenians were busy Monday morning smoking up glasses and pieces of window glass preparing to see the total eclipse of the sun scheduled to be visible here between 3:30 and 5:35 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The eclipse as visible here will be only partial but about 40 per cent of the surface of the sun will be covered from the angle of vision in this section. It is said. The patch of the total obstruction will be 105 miles wide and the central line will pass among the islands over the coast of Southern California, the only state where the total eclipse will be visible.

MOTORIST DRIVES CAR INTO BRIDGE

Dick Bell, Wilmington, had no further use for his automobile after it up and ran "smack dab" into the center abutment of the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge over South Detroit Street Saturday evening.

Bell evidently ignored a red danger reflector on the abutment for he steered his car directly at the bulls eye offered by the reflector and scored perfectly. He then wandered away from the machine Chief of Police M. E. Graham had the machine removed from the street to the Gordon Bros. Garage.

K. K. K. MEMBERS PARADE STREETS OF SPRINGFIELD

Springfield, O., Sept. 10.—Members of the Ku Klux Klan from more than four states paraded through the downtown streets here Saturday night in full regalia as the crowning feature of a meeting which began at the fair grounds at 1:30 p. m. Following the parade the initiation of a number of candidates took place at the fair grounds and a fireworks display took place.

The day passed quietly. There were no demonstrations against the Klan at the fair grounds or during the parade and no accidents of consequence resulted from the tripled traffic which crowded the city until late.

The only interruption to the huge parade of robed men and women Saturday night came when someone turned in a false fire alarm. Apparatus was rushed to High and Limestone Streets, one of the principal corners of the city.

It is estimated that several hundred Greene County members of the organization participated in the parade, Saturday evening. Special cars and machines carried Greene County Klansmen and curious spectators to Springfield during the day. Estimates of the number in the parade are placed around 10,000. It required over an hour for the parade to pass the intersection of Limestone and Main Streets.

OLD TOWN

The Ladies Aid Society of the Old Town Church will have a business meeting Tuesday at 2 o'clock. All members are asked to be present.

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

CHAPTER XXIII

Paul had been fairly regular in going into town, and the next morning George Markham stopped by and called to know if he were ready.

"I'm thinking of buying a car," he said, "and thought I would patronize a neighbor."

"Buy it where you like, Markham. I severed my connection with the Maynard people yesterday. I have something more to my liking in view," Paul told him nonchalantly.

Markham gave him a curious look, made some sort of a reply and hurried on. I felt embarrassed, dared hardly look at Paul. I was sure he had nothing in view, knew he was bluffing as usual. Paul never hesitated to lie; yet so far as I knew his lies never hurt anyone but himself, and because we belonged to him, me, and the children.

Logan had urged Paul to stick to his job.

Suddenly all my fears, all my doubts of the man were swept away. He was a good friend, and a wise one. Paul would have done well to listen to him.

"What shall you do now, Paul?" I asked. "Have you really something in view?"

"It was none of Markham's business," he replied, so confirming my suspicions. "I'll get something more to my taste. Thinking I would be a common salesman! The nerve of those men."

"But there's nothing belittling in selling," I replied.

"There is to me. With my advantages of education and travel I won't be classed with men who stand and beg for heaven's sake, get rid of that repelling look. You aren't handsome enough to risk drawing your mouth down at the corners."

I flushed, but made no retort. Paul was very apt to take his ill-humor out upon me in this way. But I was worried, anxious. We had been getting along so nicely, and now I was perhaps to go through another hard time. As the children grew older they required more, and I felt almost sure Paul had saved nothing. I asked him:

"Haven't I told you I'd attend to the finances," he returned. "I will do so. Well, I'll be getting into town. I may not be out tonight, so don't sit up."

He had been gone but a little while when the telephone rang. To my surprise it was Dave Logan. He asked for Paul, and when I told him he had gone into town, he said:

"I'm sorry he gave up his position, Mrs. Norwood, but don't worry. I'll look around and see if I can't help him find something more congenial."

"You are a true friend," I replied feeling I spoke the truth. "I am worried, more than Paul imagines." There was no use, no need, to pretend to be good a friend.

Evelyn came over the next day. Paul had not returned and when she repeated what George had told her, that Paul had a better position in view, I couldn't help giving her a part of my confidence. I told her I was anxious, that Paul was foolishly averse to holding a position he thought beneath him. Then I spoke of Logan, told her of his kindness, his good advice to Paul.

"He has nothing to gain, Evelyn. The man must have been maligned. He has been kindness itself to us."

"You mustn't believe in people being so single-minded. Ruby, she replied. "But I am glad Logan has proven worthier than his reputation."

It's too bad Paul couldn't get some literary work to do. The failure of the publishers to appreciate his book must have been a blow to him. But there are so many ways in which he might use his talent, especially now when it looks as if we might be drawn into war.

"You don't believe we will be, do you?" I asked.

"George seems to think so." "I shall be glad my children are girls, and that Paul is too old to go if it should come," I replied.

Then we talked of other things. Evelyn before she left urging me not to worry, yet I thought she was troubled on my account. She kissed me warmly when she left saying:

"Remember always that I am your friend, Ruby, no matter what happens."

I returned her kiss and after she left pondered long on what she had said. "No matter what happens." What did she expect, or fear?

No More Fooling

NOWHERE did Abraham Lincoln show his shrewdness of judgment to better effect than in that famous utterance which ended, "You can't fool all the people all the time."

In the past, there were a few misguided advertisers who thought they could sell their wares better by misrepresentation. But those advertisers have long since gone out of business or mended their ways. Hard experience taught that Lincoln was right. Untruthful advertising doesn't pay.

Other advertisers proved that the only way to advertise successfully, make regular customers and build up public goodwill was to tell the absolute truth about their goods.

So, you can be sure that every consistently advertised product is good. The advertising test has proved it. The very fact that it is advertised is your best warranty of satisfaction and true quality.

The concern that tells you frankly what it is doing is a good concern with which to do business. That is why it pays to read the advertisements, to patronize advertisers, and to buy advertised merchandise.

TWENTY-TWO DEAD IN NAVY DISASTER

RELIEF EFFORTS HELP STRICKEN AREA OF JAPAN

Foreign Aid Sent to Save
Thousands of Helpless
Refugees

DEATH LIST DOUBTFUL

Accurate Estimates of Dead Are as Yet Un-
obtainable

Washington, Sept. 10.—To add to the horrors of the devastation in the Japanese earthquake area, an epidemic of fever has broken out in Tokio, according to a despatch to the state department today from Ambassador Woods.

Shanghai, Sept. 10.—Reconstruction of Japan's devastated area is rapidly getting under way. Heroic relief measures are being taken by the government to alleviate misery and suffering throughout the 20,000 square miles devastated Saturday a week ago.

At least 60,000 persons perished in the disaster. Forty thousand dead have been counted in Yokohama alone, and twenty thousand perished in Tokio, according to official estimate received in Shanghai. The injured will exceed 150,000, these official reports indicate.

Individual burial of the dead is out of the question. To expedite the work of disposing of thousands of corpses temporary crematories are being erected.

All efforts are being made by government and business interests to establish a semblance of normal conditions throughout the empire. In pursuance with this policy the leading banks in the stricken region have been instructed by the government to open their doors and attempt to conduct business as usual. All banks throughout the empire have been granted a 10-day moratorium for all payments in excess of 100 yen ($60). The majority of financial vaults, strong boxes and safes in Tokio and Yokohama are believed to have escaped serious harm.

Finance Minister Inouye announced at Kyoto, temporary capital of Japan, that the Japanese relief fund to date had passed the $15,000,000 mark. In addition to the popular subscription the imperial family has raised a donation of 10,000,000 yen ($50,000,000) to aid their afflicted people. Everyone of the numerous official and private residences of the imperial family has been thrown open for the housing of thousands of refugees.

Three American destroyers sailed from Yokohama with 300 American refugees for Kobe. At Kobe the problem of caring for thousands of refugees is becoming extremely acute. There is a great shortage of accommodations and the food supply is not plentiful.

Shanghai Chinese raised more than $100,000 to date for Japanese relief. The local Shrine membership has contributed $5,000 for the same purpose. All steamship companies are carrying relief supplies and provisions free of charge. The American colony of Shanghai is taking a leading part in organizing aid for Yokohama and Tokio. Peking dispatches state that the Chinese government has lifted the export tax on all relief commodities going to Japan.

Columbus, Sept. 10.—Governor Donnelly appointed the following committees to draft arguments on proposals to be voted on at the November election:

For the Albaugh taxation bill—W. H. Albaugh, Troy, author of the bill; Robert A. Taft, Cincinnati, and Senator George E. Kryder of Henry county.

Against the old age pension bill—George E. Pomeroy, Toledo, president of the Ohio Board of Commerce; C. W. Patterson, Findlay, president of both the Ohio and National Retail Dry Goods association, and C. A. Dyer, Columbus, of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation. Arguments on the other side of each proposal are being drafted by the committees in charge of the circulation of petitions.

FEDERAL COURT MOVES WITH SPEED IN TRIAL OF FOUR CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

Cleveland, O., Sept. 10.—Moving with the noted speed of the federal courts, a jury to try Samuel A. Hoskins, prominent Columbus attorney; Joseph A. Shearer, Columbus, former federal prohibition director; Fred Counts, former federal prohibition agent at Cleveland and his brother, A. Frank Counts, jointly indicted on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act, was sworn in by Judge D. C. Westenhaver in Federal District Court here at 11:10 this morning.

The indictments, upon which the four went on trial charge that approximately $60,000 was paid to A. Frank Counts and $22,700 to Hoskins for services in securing approval of permit to withdraw alcohol for Louis and Abraham Auerbach, heads of the "Million Dollar Hair Tonic Company," now serving time in Atlanta Penitentiary, following conviction of frauds said to have netted them hundreds of thousands of dollars. Samuel Rembrandt, a Cleveland attorney, also convicted of an offense against the Volstead act, together with the two Auerbachs, will be among the 111 witnesses to be examined by the government.

District Attorney A. E. Bernstein was assisted by Miles F. Evans and Martin McCormick, assistant district attorneys, while ex-Judge William L. Day, Luther Day, and Charles E. Belcher, of Columbus, appeared for the defense.

Hoskins, who has been seriously ill, came into court on crutches.

ISSUE WARNING AGAINST UNION IN COAL FIELDS

Commission Recommends
Plan to Avert Strikes—
Report is Made

Washington, Sept. 10.—"The legislative, judicial and executive branches of this government must not permit a union of operators, a union of miners, nor a union of both, to become greater than the union of the United States."

This is the warning sounded by the United States coal commission in its report to the president and congress on its investigation of the constant strife in the coal industry. The report is signed by John Hays Hammond, chairman; Thomas R. Marshall, Clark Howell, George Otis Smith, Edward T. Devine, Charles P. Neill.

The commission's study was made under congressional orders for the purpose of determining the facts regarding the causes of strikes. It "does not deem it either necessary or advisable," however, "to attempt to fix ultimate responsibility." "Many, if not all, on both sides are at fault," the report asserts, "and all have some excuse arising from the weaknesses and passions of human nature."

The commission says it can not too strongly condemn the custom of permitting either operators or miners to furnish deputy sheriffs, policemen or other public officials not paid out of the public treasury. Therefore, the time has come, the commission urges, when the federal government must step in adequately to protect the rights of the public, which transcend those of both the mine workers and mine owners.

The commission points out that "both the operators' corporations and the miners' unions derive their right to exist from the common consent of the people of this country," and adds: "In their dealings with each other they must, therefore, take into consideration the fact that the general public has some rights which they are bound to respect. They can not combine to prevent the mining of coal, nor can they agree to such outrageous prices as will work a distinct hardship upon the citizens."

As the remedy for the conditions it found to exist, the commission recommends voluntary arbitration. But it vigorously urges against clothing the arbitrary body with any discretionary powers. Certain standards, it says, should be adopted to guide the arbiters.

Among the principles suggested in this connection are: All contracts must be freely and voluntarily entered into, and when so made each party should be required to scrupulously observe them; right of a man to work without union interference must never be interfered with and the state must furnish him protection; right of collective bargaining likewise to be protected, but unions must not coerce or intimidate non-union men to join their organizations; operators must not be permitted to break up unions other than by argument or advice; a living wage, and duty of both sides to the public to protect it from cold by producing coal.

WORK OF FEDERAL SLEUTHS.

Columbus, Sept. 10.—Federal prohibition agents operating in Ohio made 135 arrests in August, according to a report submitted to Acting Director H. M. Paul by F. K. Norwood, chief enforcement officer. There were 38 prosecutions in the month, no cases being tried in either Cleveland or Cincinnati as the federal court was not in session. Total fines were $14,650, taxes assessed $69,221.35 and penalties assessed $51,999.14.

MOTHER SHOTS SON TO SAVE HIM

A unique shooting affray has occurred in Chicago where Mrs. Rosa Simiz shot and seriously wounded her son Dezzo, 19, "to save him from a life of crime."

She fired when her wayward son told her he intended to become a bandit and that he never intended to work. Public sympathy was strongly with Mrs. Simiz.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS ELECTS IRELAND INTO MEMBERSHIP

Geneva, Sept. 10.—The League of Nations assembly today unanimously elected Ireland to membership. Decision to admit Ireland was made unanimous upon motion by M. Journeel, of France, President William T. Cosgrave, of the Free State Daily Echo, came mounted the platform and began a speech in Gaelic amidst an ovation.

He said he hoped the friendship between Ireland and the league would be increased by Ireland's admission to the league. He alluded to present difficulties but expressed confidence that permanent peace has been restored in Ireland.

Cosgrave recalled the old Irish proverb, "all beginnings are modest." Ex-President Bussan, of Brazil, was elected to the bench of the permanent court of justice at the Hague to fill an existing vacancy.

FESS ADDRESSES AMERICAN LEGION STATE CONVENTION

Springfield, O., Sept. 10.—Voicing the opinion that "a republic, if it hopes to endure, must rely upon its citizens for its national defense, as well as for the conduct of its every day affairs," Governor Donahay addressed the state convention of the American Legion here today.

"Professional armies are, of course, a necessity, but republics which create professional armies of such size as to impair production and tend toward militarism, invite a condition which will inevitably destroy them," the governor declared. He lauded the Americanization work being done by American Legion members, and promised aid to the legion to obtain relief and justice for disabled veterans of the World War.

ESCAPED CONVICTS SLAIN BY GUARD

Columbus, Sept. 10.—Marshal Ralph Chrysler of East Columbus shot and killed Albert Dolloff, one of four convicts who escaped from the penitentiary Saturday. Dolloff was shot through the heart. He was discovered with three other men in a cornfield east of the city. His pals escaped. Dolloff was a lifer sent from Clinton county for second degree murder. The others who escaped from the penitentiary were Joseph Carney, William Harris and Toney Ammerbach.

BURKE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Elyria, O., Sept. 10.—Senator J. R. Burke issued a statement here, formally announcing his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor in 1924. He attacked "special interests," saying: "I have fought the schemes and activities of defenders of privilege during two sessions of the senate and, so long as I have a conscience, whether in or out of office, I promise to continue to do so." Burke said he would step aside in favor of another candidate, a "progressive," should he present himself.

SNAP SHOTS

Nine convicts sent to the York county jail, York, Pa., recently from the Eastern penitentiary at Philadelphia, mutilated and set fire to the prison. The fire was extinguished before serious damage was caused to the building.

Mrs. Adelaide Purdy, 84, a Colorado pioneer, who was a school mate of Mark Hanna and William McKinley at New Lebanon, O., died at Denver. Edson White, Jr., 15, only son of the president of Armour & Company, died as a result of a wound received when his shotgun was accidentally discharged as he used it as a club to ward off an attack by a bull on his father's estate near Lake Forest, Ill.

An automobile, containing $10,000 in charge of Purchasing Agent Benoit, was robbed in the Florence district, a suburb of Omaha, Neb. The robbers escaped.

KILLED IN WORK CAMP.

Marion, O., Sept. 10.—James Watson, negro, was shot and killed at a railroad work camp near this city. Several negroes are held as suspects.

SCORES INJURED WHEN SEVEN U. S. DESTROYERS WRECKED OFF COAST

San Francisco, Calif., Sept. 10.—Twenty-two dead, scores injured and seven destroyers wrecked today marks the greatest loss in a single disaster to the United States navy in peace times.

In an almost impenetrable blanket of fog the destroyers Delphy, Young, S. P. Lee, Nicholas, Fuller, Chauncey and Woodbury, in single file, formation, piled up on the treacherous rocks off Federal Point, two miles from the point Arguello lighthouse in Santa Barbara County. All seven destroyers were a contingent of the eleventh squadron. Ten bodies have been recovered, two of which have been identified as R. A. Conroy, fireman first class, of the Delphy and "Squad," Pierson, fireman first class, also of the Delphy. The names of the other victims have not yet been made public by officials of the twelfth naval district here. The recovered bodies have been sent to San Diego. Thirteen seriously injured are in hospitals in Santa Barbara.

A special train carrying over 500 survivors, officers and enlisted men, is enroute to San Diego.

The task of rescuing survivors from rocks and cliffs in the vicinity of the "graveyard of ships" was completed last night after heroic work on the part of the rescuers, many among them being officers and enlisted men of the ill-fated destroyers, who had made their way to shore by means of a raft.

It was officially announced at 12th naval district that several of the destroyers cannot be salvaged.

The Delphy, leading a squadron of 19 destroyers from San Francisco to San Diego, was caught in a driving fog and unruly currents as she neared the wild spot. She was churning along at about 21 knots an hour. The other destroyers were following calmly in her wake. There was a crash with no warning. The Delphy splintered on the rocks off Point Honda. The destroyers Chauncey, Woodbury, S. P. Lee, Nicholas, Fuller and Young followed her blindly to ruin.

The trim prides of the battle fleet piled up on each other with terrific crashes like giant cordwood being tossed into a heap. The destroyers following the seven that went upon the rocks were warned in time to turn away. Hundreds of men went into the cold darkness and were buffeted like wooden ships against the sharp rocks and steel sides of the other ships.

Hundreds of sensational rescues took place. Chief Boatswain's Mate Peterson of the Young dove into the dark water and swam some distance to the Chauncey with a line. Over this line the men of the Young were sent to safety. Peterson is a hero. Each of the wrecked destroyers carried six officers and about 102 men. The survivors of the crash were in a pitiful state of collapse and fatigue when they swam to the rocks or were pulled ashore.

CUT OUT BOOZE TO PAY OFF WAR DEBT

Washington, Sept. 10.—Europe could pay its war debts with comparative ease merely by going on the water wagon, according to Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league.

Mr. Wheeler has just returned from the international anti-alcohol congress at Copenhagen, where he was chairman of the United States delegation. In a formal statement he declared that European nations are "cursed with drink more than with war debts," adding: "If the money wasted for liquor were turned into useful channels, as it is in the United States, the financial problems of these governments could be solved with comparative ease."

England, said Wheeler, is spending about $70 per capita annually for drink, while more than a million are out of work and the building of homes by individuals has practically ceased. Germany, in the opinion of Wheeler, is on the "verge of financial and social ruin," due to beer drinking in excess.

PINCHOT SEEKS TO PREVENT PRICE JUMP

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 10.—Governor Pinchot in a letter to President Coolidge asks that immediate steps be taken by the interstate commerce commission and other federal and state bodies to prevent any increase in the price of coal made necessary by additional costs through the anthracite coal strike settlement from reaching the public. Governor Pinchot insists the total "legitimate" increase in the cost of coal under the terms of the settlement effected is about 60 cents a ton. The operators hold that the 10 per cent wage increase and eight-hour day will add about 80 cents a ton to coal. Ten cents of the increase the governor says should be taken up by all the operators. "Many of them could absorb the whole of the 60 cent increase," writes Governor Pinchot, "and still make abundant profits."

OVER 4 MILLIONS RAISED FOR RELIEF

Washington, Sept. 10.—More than $4,000,000 has been subscribed to the $5,000,000 fund of the American Red Cross for relief work in Japan, and is expected that the total will be reached before nightfall. Red Cross officials declared this afternoon.

The executive committee of the Red Cross met this forenoon and authorized the purchase of additional supplies to fill cargo space aggregating 500 tons.

Merrick, Cleveland, grand correspondent; Thomas Tollentire, Cincinnati, guard de la porte and C. W. Rhoades, Columbus, grand conductor.

The next convention of the association will probably be held in Findlay, it was announced.

There were 79 cases for money only, the judgments amounting to $45,137.50 and there were 12 cases in which money was included other than the above for a total of $12,165.10.

Three hundred and two final decrees were rendered during the court year. Two hundred cases were pending at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, 1922, and 360 were filed during the fiscal year for a total of 560 cases. Of these 302 were disposed of 21 were taken to the next higher court and 237 were still pending at the end of the last fiscal year.

There was only one case pending in the Greene County Court of Appeals at the beginning of the fiscal year, but 21 were filed during the year. Of these 15 were disposed of and seven were still pending at the end of the last fiscal year.

The report to the Secretary of State shows three persons were naturalized during the fiscal year, one a former resident of Canada and two from Scotland. All three were white and male.

Modern "Little Nell" Is Found in Illinois.

Margaret Mellon

Eleven-year-old Margaret Mellon was found living in a dog-kennel on the farm of J. J. Smith of LaGrange, Ill. The girl's mother died in 1919, and her father Lloyd Mellon then living in Chicago wanted the little girl reared in the country. He arranged with the Smiths to give her room and board and to look out for her education. He paid them $200 a year until 1921, when he disappeared. Since that time, it is charged, she has been doing all the heavy work on the farm and sleeping with the dogs. Smith was arrested.

CLEVELAND MAYOR ADVERTISES CITY

Cleveland, Sept. 10.—"Welcome to Cleveland—Fred Kohler, Mayor.

In this pithy parable, lettered in bold black upon a background of brilliant orange blares forth its greeting to everyone who enters the city.

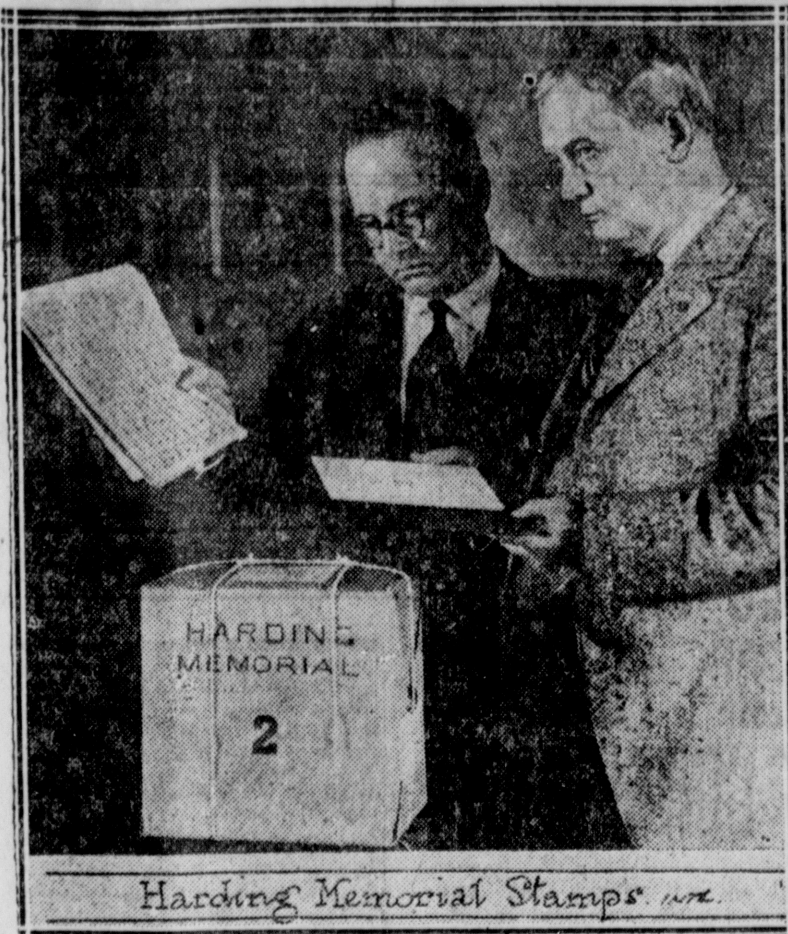

Kohler's caustic color campaign is rapidly transforming the fifth city into the semblance of a futurist's dream. Every municipal waste paper box, park bench and safety zone sign now glows under a fresh coat of the famous orange and black combination which replaces the former unobtrusive, orthodox green.

An unlimited amount of "poking fun" in the daily newspapers leaves the erratic Mayor unabashed as he continues to "wield a wicked paint brush." See-saws and high slides on city playgrounds bath houses and even the life guards on municipal beaches—all have undergone the brightening up process.

Conservative citizens who were wont to spend the warm Summer evenings basking in the sylvan beauty and quietude of their favorite neighborhood park are aghast at the blatant metamorphosis which literally "swats one in the eye."

A spot of orange showing through the foliage of one of the tall old trees in Edgewater Park famed as one of the prettiest spots in Cleveland revealed upon close inspection that even the bird houses have not escaped the swath of Mayor Kohler's brush.

In every field of endeavor the man or woman who possesses 100% health wins. With health as an efficiency asset, the worker fixes his own price. Without health, he must be satisfied with the lower wage.

Health Wins

The principal reason that the physically fit worker gets ahead is because he accomplishes things with seemingly little effort. The fact that he has health makes work play. Don't you know this is true?

Vigorous Old Age

WHY separate youth and old age with a deep and ever-widening abyss?

The bloom of youth and the hardy, ruddy glow of Old Age—sixteen and sixty—should be separated only by the span of years and not by varying differences of physical wholesomeness.

Vigorous old age is within the grasp of all. S. S. S. brings that hale and hearty feeling back with a rush. Rich red blood is the greatest enemy of weakening, health undermining Old Age. S. S. S. builds Red Blood Cells. Rich, red blood coursing through your veins sweeps away impurities that retard the proper functioning of your system. Old Age—once a dreaded agony becomes a vigorous, enjoyable, care free time of life.

S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks—scientifically prepared and proportioned. Welcome Old Age when it comes. Be ready to withstand the attacks of diseases that follow in its wake. Meet Old Age with a hearty handshake. A handshake that speaks of well being—of a vigorous, clear thinking, red blooded constitution. S. S. S. is your best friend when Old Age is seen rounding the corner. Get a bottle and drive care and worry away. All leading drug stores carry it. The large size is the more economical.

The ceremony was witnessed by the members of the bride's immediate family and Mrs. Roy Olinger, of Terre Haute, Indiana. The Rev. V. F. Brown, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, performed the single ring ceremony.

The bride's outfit was her traveling suit of dark blue. Mr. and Mrs. Bridget left Saturday evening for an extended Eastern wedding trip. They will reside in Richmond, Indiana, at 15 21st Street. Mr. Bridget is connected with the branch office of the Eavey Wholesale Company at Richmond.

Mr. Orville Lones, of Ada, Ohio, who attended Central High School here and graduated with the class of 1922, spent Thursday and Friday here as the guest of William McCormick, of North Detroit street.

Miss Josephine Bollinger of Dayton, has returned home after spending several days here visiting relatives and friends.

Styles BY LENORE

It is predicted that this year's fur wraps will favor coats, chiefly of the straight, slender silhouette, but extremely supple. Capes are seen in the various displays, and there are some extremely attractive flare hem coats surmounted by a bloused bodice. But the straight coat undoubtedly predominates, both in the Paris displays.

Several novel features are emphasized which will undoubtedly add unusual interest to furs this season.

There are, for example, very good-looking coats combining furs in a novel way. There is the model in the sketch as an instance, which chooses moleskin for the top and takes squirrel for all the rest of itself. And the band of green and metal embroidery which makes the transition between the two kinds of fur at the waist and on the sleeves, you will agree, is also new.

Another interesting idea, born no doubt of the vogue for jacquette, is illustrated in the other model, half fur, half cloth. Sable squirrel and brown Oriona cloth are used.

Mr. Frank Chambliss, medical student, who has been employed at the Dayton State Hospital this summer where he conducted physical examinations for more than 1,300 patients, has resigned and will resume his studies at the Eclectic Medical College, Cincinnati, within a few days.

FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY EIGHT STUDENTS ENROLLED IN NEW CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Four hundred and thirty-eight Central Senior High School students gathered in the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium in the new school building Monday morning for an assembly and exercises that marked the opening of the fall term and the baptism of the new building.

In spite of the usual gradual increase in enrollment, the effect of the attendance law, the enticing advantages of the new school building and the law-enforced program of physical education, the opening day enrollment fell short of last year's first day enrollment by 11 pupils, the initial enrollment last year being 449.

Launching students off on their year's work in the new buildings, marks a new era in high school education here, for it inaugurates a large and modern school building, with an enlarged curricula and many new features. The school plan this year also returns to the same time system in vogue other places and used here before the crowded condition in the old building forced a change—that of both morning and afternoon sessions for all pupils.

When the third floor of the old building was abandoned because it was pronounced unsafe, conditions were so congested on the other two floors that only half-day sessions for certain classes were in effect. Seniors and juniors pursued their studies in the morning and freshmen and sophomores in the afternoon. School study hours were practically eliminated by the short time allowed in each session. This year all study and recitation periods have been lengthened from 45 minutes to one hour, and with four subjects fixed as a maximum program, students will have two study periods available most of the time.

Principal Harper C. Pendry called the high school pupils together for the first assembly Monday morning. The program opened with the singing of "America" by the students, led by Miss Sannie K. Haynes, member of the faculty. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Reynolds who also gave a Scriptural reading. Miss Haynes again led the students in singing "The Star Spangled Banner," which was followed by a salute to the flag.

Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz spoke of the new building and asked pupils to co-operate in an attempt to keep it in its originally fine condition. He also spoke briefly of athletics and the value of clean sportsmanship. Principal Pendry also spoke briefly, and announced the enrollment of 438 supplemented by the announcement that the first day's enrollment four years ago was but 207.

Following the general assembly there was an assembly of boys in the auditorium and girls in Room 47. Lockers and seats will be assigned pupils Tuesday morning. Classes convened for the beginning of school work at 9:45 o'clock.

The annual "ducking" of freshmen by upper-classesmen initiating them into the mysteries of high school, went merrily on at fitting times and will be continued until all have been initiated. There will be a class fight the latter part of this week, it is announced.

Enrollment figures were not yet obtainable Monday for McKinley Junior High, East High, Lincoln Junior High, Lincoln, McKinley, Spring Hill, Orient Hill and Opportunity Schools, although the total is expected to exceed 2,000 for the public schools. St. Bridget's parochial high school and grade school also began the fall term

Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock but enrollment figures are not yet available.

WILL PLAY JAZZ

TWO DEMOCRATS ON THE TARIFF AND EUROPEANISM.

Two prominent Democratic leaders of New York recently addressed a meeting of Rhode Island Democrats. Senator Copeland handed out the usual line of Democratic dope about the infamies of a protective tariff and the glories of European entanglement for the United States. Then arose former Ambassador James W. Gerard and laid down the following propositions:

"We have got to have something to protect our workingmen from the cheap labor of Europe. What is going to happen to the workmen of Rhode Island, of Fall River and other industrial communities if they do not have protection?"

"I am beginning to think that the thing for us to do is to have a great navy and an army of experts and to stand behind them and keep out of other people's affairs. If we would create that great navy, if we would build up a great army and not give them up for anybody—then we could live here in peace."

A contributor to the New York World relates this incident and then wants to know how it is that both of these men can be Democrats and talk such diametrically opposed doctrines.

On this occasion Senator Copeland was handing out political hokum and Mr. Gerard was talking patriotic common sense. But both have precedents for their respective positions. Mr. Gerard talked just as Andrew Jackson would have talked on both the tariff question and the issue of European involvement. He was also in line with Thomas Jefferson. Senator Copeland, on the other hand, followed Colonel Bryan on the tariff and Woodrow Wilson on his Europeanism. Wilson and Bryan are leaders of more recent vintage, but whether or not, in the matter of wisdom, they have anything on Jackson and Jefferson is a problem Democrats will have to settle among themselves.

SAMPLE OF SOUTHERN DEMOCRACY.

Alabama would show a fairly equal division between the parties on the whole vote alone if Alabama possessed a free government. By wholesale crookedness the Republican party has been reduced to an insignificant minority in the state. It does, however, carry some counties where the white vote is heavily predominant. One of these is Winston County. Year after year the Alabama Democratic machine has tried to carry this county by every unfair device with which it is familiar, but in vain. Despairing of success along this line, the Alabama Democratic state machine recently decided that the legislature now in session must pass a special law providing that in this one county the commissioners court, which controls the county government, shall be abolished, substituting therefore a county supervising board to be appointed by the governor. No other county in the state is affected. The bill merely represents the insatiable appetite of this thoroughly disreputable patronage machine for pie and plunder, even when it is necessary to overthrow popular government to get it.

REGARDING NATURAL GAS.

Commenting on the decision of the United States supreme court that the state of West Virginia has no right under federal laws to restrict the supply of natural gas passing from within its border to neighboring states, the Martins Ferry (O.) Daily Times says, editorially:

This valuable commodity has continually been growing scarcer and particularly during the last few years has the condition been alarming. Gas companies have issued frequent warnings to consumers, urging economy in the use of their product, particularly for heating purposes. Rates have been raised and gas company officials have declared that one of the objects of these increases has been to force curtailment of consumption. Many of the public have scoffed at this claim, believing that it was made as an argument to induce authorities to grant the higher rates.

The supreme court decision merely gives Ohio and other states using natural gas an opportunity to prepare for the time, not very far ahead, when nature will shut off the supply.

LEONARD GETS DECISION.

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard knew too much and punched too hard for Johnny Mendelssohn to much in their eight-round bout, and the newspaper decision easily went to the champion. Mendelssohn was trying all the time, and in some of the early rounds got over a number of effective blows, carrying one of the rounds. The sharpshooting Leonard, however, slowed him up with punches as the fight wore along.

ATTACKED BY BANDITS.

Elyria, O., Sept. 8.—Orlando Hurst, 20, son of a prominent Elyria business man, is confined to his home with swollen wrists and ankles and suffering from nervous shock, following his experience when three automobile bandits, to whom he was demonstrating an automobile, attacked him. The trio took $40 from Hurst and made their escape in the demonstrator's automobile.

Baked Macaroni Ramekins: Make a sauce by blending two tablespoons of butter, two tablespoons of flour, and two cups of canned chicken soup; let this boil up for a moment till smooth and thickened, then add to it two and one-half cups of cooked macaroni and turn this mixture into buttered ramekins, or any small individual baking dishes. Filling these small dishes only half full. Now break a raw egg into each dish, on top of the macaroni mixture. Sprinkle sparingly with salt and pepper, add a generous grating of cheese and place the dishes in a moderate oven till firm (about 15 minutes). Serve hot.

Sour Milk Griddlecakes: Sift together one cup of bread flour, one-fourth teaspoon of salt and one-half teaspoon of baking soda; add one cup of sour milk and one well-beaten egg. Drop this mixture by spoonfuls onto a hot, buttered griddle, let cook on one side, then turn to cook on the other. (If you wish to make these cakes with sweet milk instead of sour, use one cup of sweet milk and one teaspoon of baking powder, and no soda.)

Savory Baked Cod: (This recipe may also be used for halibut or haddock.) You will need two pounds of the sliced fish. Dust it lightly with salt and pepper and sprinkle with one teaspoon of lemon juice. Lay the fish in an enamelware pan and sprinkle it with one green sweet pepper and one large peeled onion, both of these vegetables chopped finely and mixed together. Cover with buttered crumbs, pour two cups of hot water into the pan around the fish, and bake in a moderate oven till the fish is tender and the crumbs brown (for fish-slices one inch thick, bake about 40 minutes).

Horseradish Sauce to be Served with Roast Beef: Dissolve one dessertspoon of sugar in one-half cup of vinegar; mix this with one cupful of grated horseradish, then also stir in one teaspoon each of mustard and salt. Mix well and keep in ice box, tightly corked, when not in the table. It will keep for a month in this way.

Swedish Rolls: Make ordinary biscuit dough (following the recipe on your baking powder can.) Roll it out, butter it well and sprinkle it with one cup of sugar to which has been added one tablespoon of ground cinnamon. Roll up the sheet of dough like a jelly roll, then slice it in inch-wide pieces. Place these cut-side-down in buttered pans, sprinkle with more sugar and cinnamon and bake 15 minutes in a hot oven.

THE SPIRIT
Hold fast and falter not,
Live out your time;
Nor rust nor rime,
Nor failure's bitter toll
Can scar the soul.

What matters is not loss
Which men deplore,
The sting of bruises sore
Nor hunger unappeased
But is God pleased?

Serve not your pride,
That way lies shame.

Bear if you must men's blame
But, high above the crowd,
Let God be proud.

Not what you've won shall count
In life's strange race;
The humblest post or place
May see its hero crowned
Whom fame had never found.

Glory and hurt are kin,
Forgotten with the years,
Vanish both smiles and tears;
Be you not turned aside—
God knows what you have tried.

Today's Talk

RUST

When I was a boy, I came across the phrase that "it is better to wear out than to rust out."

Remembering it, I am reminded of the machine that works for years and years, when cared for and watched, without wearing out. And then I am also reminded of the machine that falls to pieces in short order when left inactive and inviting rust and decay.

Even so precious a thing as friendship must be kept clean and free of all dust and dampness. Or else rust will get to it as it gets to the grosser, material things.

A man may rust in his work, if he neglects and slights it. A mind may rust if it is left to wander in disuse. Even your heart may rust if it refuses warmth and neglects to give warmth to others.

My mind trots back to the story of the great Ulysses who, reaching the evening of his life, sees the glory of past days and spurs the idea "to rust unburnish'd, not to shine in use!" And so his soul longs anew "to sail beyond the sunset" and to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

Rust comes wholly from inaction and neglect.

It seems to be the law of nature that unless there be use and service there must follow decay and death, no matter what the age.

To complain is to rust. To criticize is to die within your soul.

To harbor the past, its failures and its mistakes, and to live in the midst of regrets is to rust. Worry is the worst form of human rust. Shine in use, in work, in the doing of happy things.

No frozen clothes and no chapped hands

CLOTHES washed the Laun-Dry-Ette Way need not be hung outside in winter. The Laun-Dry-Ette's exclusive method of extracting the water by centrifugal force leaves the wash damp instead of wet so it dries quickly indoors.

Some users iron direct from the dryer—others prefer to air the clothes. Do it the way you prefer. In any case the Laun-Dry-Ette will save your hands and your strength.

For you need never put your hands into the water when you wash the Laun-Dry-Ette Way. The machine itself does the rinsing and the bluing as well as the washing. Does both better than human hands can do them. This helps the clothes and saves your hands. Women who use the Laun-Dry-Ette do not get chapped hands.

They never handle WET clothes—only damp clothes.

Investigate. Phone or call and let's give a demonstration of all Laun-Dry-Ette advantages in your own home.

JURY FEES EXCEED FINES COLLECTED DURING PAST YEAR

Green County Common Pleas Court collected $740.91 in fines and forfeited recognizances and paid out $1,910.19 in jury fees, during the fiscal year ending July 1, 1923, according to the annual report of Clerk of Courts Harvey Elam.

Fines amounted to $240.91 during the twelfth month and one recognizance amounting to $500 was forfeited. Grand jury fees amounted to $239.16, while petit juries in civil cases drew the bulk of money from the jury fund, $1,160.64 being paid those jurymen. Criminal case juries were paid $510.39.

Judgments were rendered in 51 actions for civil judgment, for a sum totalling $57,302.90 or an average of $629.70 for each judgment. There were 79 cases for money only, the judgments amounting to $45,137.50 and there were 12 cases in which money was included other than the above for a total of $12,165.10.

Three hundred and two final decrees were rendered during the court year. Two hundred cases were pending in Common Pleas Court at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, 1922, and 360 were filed during the fiscal year for a total of 560 cases. Of these 302 were disposed of 21 were taken to the next higher court and 237 were still pending at the end of the last fiscal year.

There was only one case pending in the Greene County Court of Appeals at the beginning of the fiscal year, but 21 were filed during the year. Of these 15 were disposed of and seven were still pending at the end of the last fiscal year.

The report to the Secretary of State shows three persons were naturalized during the fiscal year, one a former resident of Canada and two from Scotland. All three were white and male.

She was united in marriage to Joseph DeVoe, March 23, 1872, who preceded her to the great beyond in a tragic automobile accident, September 30, 1912.

To this union three children were born, all living. Mrs. Stacy Wilson of Bowersville, Mrs. Mary E. Bentley of Xenia, and Mrs. Ida May Gordon at home.

She leaves to mourn their loss, three children, seven grand children, seven great-grandchildren, two brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Linkhart of Dayton, Mrs. John Anderson of Wilmington, Harvey C. and Samuel P. Faulkner of Paintersville, and a host of friends.

Mrs. DeVoe united with the M. P. Church at Paintersville when a girl and remained a member of the church during her entire life. In her earlier years she was an active member and supported the church all through her life.

Mrs. DeVoe was a faithful wife, good, kind and loving mother, always cherishing the interest and welfare of her home.

Her place in the home is vacant, but in our memory shall hang the beautiful picture of that dear and loving face. May her life be a closer tie between you and heaven, and some day you may meet her with the Blessed Savior.

"Blessed are the pure in Heart, for they shall see God."

Modern "Little Nell" Is Found in Illinois.

Eleven-year-old Margaret Mellon was found living in a dog-kennel on the farm of J. J. Smith of LaGrange, Ill. The girl's mother died in 1919, and her father Lloyd Mellon then living in Chicago wanted the little girl reared in the country. He arranged with the Smiths to give her room and board and to look out for her education. He paid them $200 a year until 1921, when he disappeared. Since that time, it is charged she has been doing all the heavy work on the farm and sleeping with the dogs. Smith was arrested.

COUNTY CORONER PROBES 28 CASES

Twenty-eight cases were investigated by the Coroner during the fiscal Common Pleas Court year ending July 1, 1923, according to the report submitted by Harvey Elam clerk of courts, to the Secretary of State.

Three of these cases were homicides, ten were suicides, six were accident cases and in nine cases the cause was unknown or was from natural causes. In two of the cases the nativity was unknown, but the other 26 were native born.

Twenty-two were whites, of whom 16 were male and six female, and six were colored, including four male and two female. Of the white males two cases were homicides, four were suicides, three were accidents and seven were unknown or from natural causes. Of the white females, three were suicides, one was an accident and two were unknown.

Of the colored classification, one female was a homicide and one and accident, and three males were suicides and one an accident victim. The report shows that none were superinduced by intemperance.

CLEVELAND MAYOR ADVERTISES CITY

Cleveland, Sept. 10.—"Welcome to Cleveland—Fred Koner, mayor.

This pithy parable, lettered in bold black upon a background of brilliant orange blazes forth its greeting to everyone who enters the city.

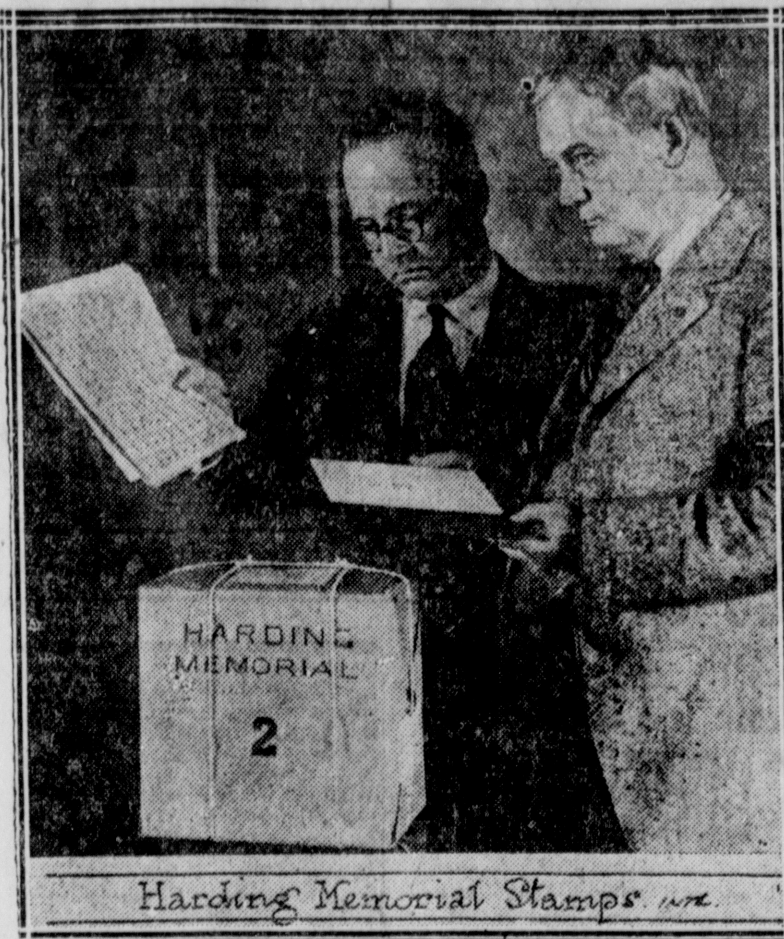

Kohler's caustic color campaign is rapidly transforming the fifth city into the semblance of a futurist's dream. Every municipal waste paper box park bench and safety zone sign now glows under a fresh coat of the famous orange and black combination which replaces the former unobtrusive, orthodox green.

An unlimited amount of "poking fun" in the daily newspapers leaves the erratic Mayor unabashed as he continues to "wield a wicked paint brush." See-saws and high slides on city playgrounds bath houses and even the life guards on municipal beaches—all have undergone the brightening-up process.

Conservative citizens who were wont to spend the warm Summer evenings basking in the sylvan beauty and quietude of their favorite neighborhood park are aghast at the blatant metamorphosis which literally "swats one in the eye."

A spot of orange showing through the foliage of one of the tall old trees in Edgewater Park famed as one of the prettiest spots in Cleveland revealed upon close inspection that even the bird houses have not escaped the swath of Mayor Kohler's brush.

Vigorous Old Age

WHY separate youth and old age with a deep and ever-widening abyss?

The bloom of youth and the hardy, ruddy glow of Old Age—sixteen and sixty—should be separated only by the span of years and not by varying differences of physical wholesomeness.

Vigorous old age is within the grasp of all. S. S. S. brings that hale and hearty feeling back with a rush. Rich red blood is the greatest enemy of weakening, health undermining Old Age. S. S. S. builds Red Blood Cells. Rich, red blood coursing through your veins sweeps away impurities that retard the proper functioning of your system. Old Age—once a dreaded agony becomes a vigorous, enjoyable, care free time of life.

S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks—scientifically prepared and proportioned. Welcome Old Age when it comes. Be ready to withstand the attacks of diseases that follow in its wake. Meet Old Age with a hearty handshake. A handshake that speaks of well being—of a vigorous, clear thinking, red blooded constitution. S. S. S. is your best friend when Old Age is seen rounding the corner. Get a bottle and drive care and worry away. All leading drug stores carry it. The large size is the more economical.

The ceremony was witnessed by the members of the bride's immediate family and Mrs. Roy Olinger, of Terre Haute, Indiana. The Rev. V. F. Brown, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, performed the single ring ceremony.

The bride's outfit was her traveling suit of dark blue. Mr. and Mrs. Britton left Saturday evening for an extended Eastern wedding trip. They will reside in Richmond, Indiana, at 16 21st Street. Mr. Britton is connected with the branch office of the Eavey Wholesale Company at Richmond.

Miss Josephine Bollinger of Dayton, has returned home after spending several days here visiting relatives and friends.

Coach Earl Burgner and Mr. E. I. Gephart of the Central High School faculty, have returned from their vacations. They will make their home with Superintendent and Mrs. C. A. Waltz. William C. Boyce and Carl B. Felger of the school faculty have also taken rooms at the Waltz home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ringer returned home Friday evening after having spent a week visiting with relatives and friends in West Virginia, Gallipolis and Detroit.

Miss Catherine Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foley of West Second Street, has gone to Dayton where she took up work in St. Elizabeth Hospital preparatory to entering the Nurses' Training School which is conducted by the Sisters in charge of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Styles BY LENORE

It is predicted that this year's fur wraps will favor coats, chiefly of the straight, slender silhouette, but extremely supple. Capes are seen in the various displays, and there are some extremely attractive flare hem coats surmounted by a bloused bodice. But the straight coat undoubtedly predominates, both in the Paris displays.

Several novel features are emphasized which will undoubtedly add unusual interest to furs this season.

Mr. Frank Chambers, medical student, who has been employed at the Dayton State Hospital this summer where he conducted physical examinations for more than 1,300 patients, has resigned and will resume his studies at the Eclectic Medical College, Cincinnati, within a few days.

Miss Katherine Giller, of San Gabriel, Calif., who had been the guest for a week of Mrs. Mildred Prugh of East Church Street, left Friday evening for the East where she will visit for a time before returning home.

FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY EIGHT STUDENTS ENROLLED IN NEW CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Four hundred and thirty-eight Central Senior High School students gathered in the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium in the new school building Monday morning for an assembly and exercises that marked the opening of the fall term and the baptism of the new building.

In spite of the usual gradual increase in enrollment, the effect of the attendance law, the enticing advantages of the new school building and the law-enforced program of physical education, the opening day enrollment fell short of last year's first day enrollment by 11 pupils, the initial enrollment last year being 449.

Launching students off on their year's work in the new buildings, marks a new era in high school education here, for it inaugurates a large and modern school building, with an enlarged curricula and many new features. The school plan this year also returns to the same time system in vogue other places and used here before the crowded condition in the old building forced a change—that of both morning and afternoon sessions for all pupils.

When the third floor of the old building was abandoned because it was pronounced unsafe, conditions were so congested on the other two floors that only half-day sessions for certain classes were in effect. Seniors and juniors pursued their studies in the morning and freshmen and sophomores in the afternoon. School study hours were practically eliminated by the short time allowed in each session. This year all study and recitation periods have been lengthened from 45 minutes to one hour, and with four subjects fixed as a maximum program, students will have two study periods available most of the time.

Principal Harper C. Pendry called the high school pupils together for the first assembly Monday morning. The program opened with the singing of "America" by the students, led by Miss Sannie K. Haynes, member of the faculty. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Reynolds who also gave a Scriptural reading. Miss Haynes again led the students in singing "The Star Spangled Banner," which was followed by a salute to the flag.

Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz spoke of the new building and asked pupils to co-operate in an attempt to keep it in its originally fine condition. He also spoke briefly of athletics and the value of clean sportsmanship. Principal Pendry also spoke briefly, and announced the enrollment of 438 supplemented by the announcement that the first day's enrollment four years ago was but 267.

Following the general assembly there was an assembly of boys in the auditorium and girls in Room 47. Lockers and seats will be assigned pupils Tuesday morning. Classes convened for the beginning of school work at 9:45 o'clock.

The annual "ducking" of freshmen by upper-classesmen initiating them into the mysteries of high school, went merrily on at fitting times and will be continued until all have been initiated. There will be a class fight the latter part of this week, it is announced.

Enrollment figures were not yet obtainable, Monday for McKinley Junior High, East High, Lincoln Junior High, Lincoln, McKinley, Spring Hill, Orient Hill and Opportunity Schools, although the total is expected to exceed 2,000 for the public schools. St. Bridgid's parochial high school and grade school also began the fall term

Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock but enrollment figures are not yet available.

WILL PLAY JAZZ

Lovers of real "jazz" music of the "blues" type should have their craving satisfied at City Hall Theater Monday evening when W. C. Hardy, composer of Beale St. Blues and other famous dancing pieces appeared with his original band and accompanied by Sara Martin who made Sugar Blues famous on phonograph records.

INFANT SUCCUMBS

Frederick Brittenham, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Brittenham, of Lincoln Street, died Sunday morning at five o'clock at the home of his parents. The child had not been well since birth, and was one year, four months and seven days old at the time of death. Surviving are the parents and five other children. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at two o'clock and burial was made in Woodland Cemetery.

Mrs. Scott Hudson, of Terre Haute, Ind., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarbox of North Galloway Street. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson came here after a motor trip through the East and Mr. Hudson has now gone to New York City on a business trip. Mrs. Hudson will remain in this city until his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Price, of Frankford, who had been the guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Price of North West Street, went to Cambridge, Saturday, where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Price. Miss Margaret Whitehead of Columbus, has also been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Price for the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Swigart, of the Springfield Pike, are the parents of a son born Tuesday morning.

Mrs. E. C. Ashbaugh and children have returned to their home in Springfield after a brief visit at the home of Mrs. Ashbaugh's mother, Mrs. Catherine Higgins, of Home Avenue.

TWO DEMOCRATS ON THE TARIFF AND EUROPEANISM.

Two prominent Democratic leaders of New York recently addressed a meeting of Rhode Island Democrats. Senator Copeland handed out the usual line of Democratic dope about the infamies of a protective tariff and the glories of European entanglement for the United States. Then arose former Ambassador James W. Gerard and laid down the following propositions:

"We have got to have something to protect our workmen from the cheap labor of Europe. What is going to happen to the workmen of Rhode Island, of Fall River and other industrial communities if they do not have protection?"

"I am beginning to think that the thing for us to do is to have a great navy and an army of experts and to stand behind them and keep out of other people's affairs. If we would create that great navy, if we would build up a great army and not give them up for anybody—then we could live here in peace."

A contributor to the New York World relates this incident and then wants to know how it is that both of these men can be Democrats and talk such diametrically opposed doctrines.

On this occasion Senator Copeland was handing out political hokum and Mr. Gerard was talking patriotic common sense. But both have precedents for their respective positions. Mr. Gerard talked just as Andrew Jackson would have talked on both the tariff question and the issue of European involvement. He was also in line with Thomas Jefferson. Senator Copeland, on the other hand, followed Colonel Bryan on the tariff and Woodrow Wilson on his Europeanism. Wilson and Bryan are leaders of more recent vintage, but whether or not, in the matter of wisdom, they have anything on Jackson and Jefferson is a problem Democrats will have to settle among themselves.

SAMPLE OF SOUTHERN DEMOCRACY.

Alabama would show a fairly equal division between the parties on the whole vote alone if Alabama possessed a free government. By wholesale crookedness the Republican party has been reduced to an insignificant minority in the state. It does, however, carry some counties where the white vote is heavily predominant. One of these is Winston County. Year after year the Alabama Democratic machine has tried to carry this county by every unfair device with which it is familiar, but in vain. Despairing of success along this line, the Alabama Democratic state machine recently decided that the legislature now in session must pass a special law providing that in this one county the commissioners court, which controls the county government, shall be abolished, substituting therefore a county supervising board to be appointed by the governor. No other county in the state is affected. The bill merely represents the insatiable appetite of this thoroughly disreputable patronage machine for pie and plunder, even when it is necessary to overthrow popular government to get it.

REGARDING NATURAL GAS.

Commenting on the decision of the United States supreme court that the state of West Virginia has no right under federal laws to restrict the supply of natural gas passing from within its border to neighboring states, the Martins Ferry (O.) Daily Times says, editorially:

This valuable commodity has continually been growing scarcer and particularly during the last few years has the condition been alarming. Gas companies have issued frequent warnings to consumers, urging economy in the use of their product, particularly for heating purposes. Rates have been raised and gas company officials have declared that one of the objects of these increases has been to force curtailment of consumption. Many of the public have scoffed at this claim, believing that it was made as an argument to induce authorities to grant the higher rates.

The supreme court decision merely gives Ohio and other states using natural gas an opportunity to prepare for the time, not very far ahead, when nature will shut off the supply.

THE GO-GETTER

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

All Xenia seems to be traveling this week. Everyone who can get away from home is either attending the fair at Dayton or the Fall Festival at Cincinnati.

A number of the members of the Catherine Greene Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution held a picnic at the Neff grounds yesterday afternoon.

The Elks are already discussing their coming minstrel performance which is to be given Thanksgiving.

Mr. Charles Fisher will hereafter have sole charge of the Fisher meat business. Mr. Chas. Buck, who has been associated with the Fisher business for twenty years with the exception of 5 or 6 months during which he was with Derrick has returned to the Fisher store.

LEONARD GETS DECISION.

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard knew too much and punched too hard for Johnny Mendelssohn to much in their eight-round bout, and the newspaper decision easily went to the champion. Mendelssohn was trying all the time, and in some of the early rounds got over a number of effective blows, carrying one of the rounds. The sharpshooting Leonard, however, slowed him up with punches as the fight wore along.

ATTACKED BY BANDITS.

Elyria, O., Sept. 8.—Orlando Hurst, 20, son of a prominent Elyria business man, is confined to his home with swollen wrists and ankles and suffering from nervous shock, following his experience when three automobile bandits, to whom he was demonstrating an automobile, attacked him. The trio took $40 from Hurst and made their escape in the demonstrator's automobile.

Baked Macaroni Ramekins: Make a sauce by blending two tablespoons of butter, two tablespoons of flour, and two cups of canned chicken soup; let this boil up for a moment till smooth and thickened, then add to it two and one-half cups of cooked macaroni and turn this mixture into buttered ramekins, or any small individual baking dishes. Fill these small dishes only half full. Now break a raw egg into each dish, on top of the macaroni mixture. Sprinkle sparingly with salt and pepper, add a generous grating of cheese and place the dishes in a moderate oven till firm (about 15 minutes). Serve hot.

Sour Milk Griddlecakes: Sift together one cup of bread flour, one-fourth teaspoon of salt and one-half teaspoon of baking soda; add one cup of sour milk and one well-beaten egg. Drop this mixture by spoonfuls onto a hot, buttered griddle, let cook on one side, then turn to cook on the other. (If you wish to make these cakes with sweet milk instead of sour, use one cup of sweet milk and one teaspoon of baking powder, and no soda.)

Savory Baked Cod: (This recipe may also be used for halibut or haddock.) You will need two pounds of the sliced fish. Dust it lightly with salt and pepper and sprinkle with one teaspoon of lemon juice. Lay the fish in an enamelware pan and sprinkle it with one green sweet pepper and one large peeled onion, both of these vegetables chopped finely and mixed together. Cover with buttered crumbs, pour two cups of hot water into the pan around the fish, and bake in a moderate oven till the fish is tender and the crumbs brown (for fish-slices one inch thick, bake about 40 minutes).

Horseradish Sauce: To be served with Roast Beef: Dissolve one dessertspoon of sugar in one-half cup of vinegar; mix this with one cupful of grated horseradish, then also stir in one teaspoon each of mustard and salt. Mix well and keep in the ice box, tightly corked, when not on the table. It will keep for a month in this way.

Swedish Rolls: Make ordinary biscuit dough (following the recipe on your baking powder can.) Roll it out, butter it well and sprinkle it with one cup of sugar to which has been added one tablespoon of ground cinnamon. Roll up the sheet of dough like a jelly roll, then slice it in inch-wide pieces. Place these cut-side-down in buttered pans, sprinkle with more sugar and cinnamon and bake 15 minutes in a hot oven.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

THE SPIRIT
Hold fast and falter not,
Live out your time;
Nor rust nor rime,
Nor failure's bitter toll
Can scar the soul.

What matters is not loss
Which men deplore,
The sting of bruises sore
Nor hunger unappeased
But is God pleased?

Serve not your pride,
That way lies shame,

Bear if you must men's blame
But, high above the crowd,
Let God be proud.

Not what you've won shall count
In life's strange race;
The humblest post or place
May see its hero crowned
Whom fame had never found.

Glory and hurt are kin,
Forgotten with the years,
Vanish both smiles and tears;
Be you not turned aside—
God knows what you have tried.

Today's Talk

RUST

When I was a boy, I came across the phrase that "it is better to wear out than to rust out."

Remembering it, I am reminded of the machine that works, for years and years, when cared for and watched, without wearing out. And then I am also reminded of the machine that falls to pieces in short order when left inactive and inviting rust and decay.

Even so precious a thing as friendship must be kept clean and free of all dust and dampness. Or else rust will get to it as it gets to the grosser, material things.

A man may rust in his work, if he neglects and slights it.

A mind may rust if it is left to wander in disuse. Even your heart may rust if it refuses warmth and neglects to give warmth to other.

My mind trots back to the story of the great Ulysses who, reaching the evening of his life, sees the glory of past days and spurns the idea "to rust unburnish'd, not to shine in use!" And so his soul longs anew "to sail beyond the sunset" and to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

Rust comes wholly from inaction and neglect.

It seems to be the law of nature that unless there be use and service there must follow decay and death, no matter what the age.

To complain is to rust. To criticize is to die within your soul.

To harbor the past, its failures and its mistakes, and to live in the midst of regrets is to rust. Worry is the worst form of human rust.

Shine in use, in work, in the doing of happy things.

No frozen clothes and no chapped hands

CLOTHES washed the Laun-Dry-Ette Way need not be hung outside in winter. The Laun-Dry-Ette's exclusive method of extracting the water by centrifugal force leaves the wash damp instead of wet so it dries quickly indoors.

Some users iron direct from the dryer—others prefer to air the clothes. Do it the way you prefer. In any case the Laun-Dry-Ette will save your hands and your strength.

For you need never put your hands into the water when you wash the Laun-Dry-Ette Way. The machine itself does the rinsing and the bluing as well as the washing. Does both better than human hands can do them. This helps the clothes and saves your hands. Women who use the Laun-Dry-Ette do not get chapped hands.

They never handle WET clothes—only damp clothes.

Investigate. Phone or call and let's give a demonstration of all Laun-Dry-Ette advantages in your own home.

BAYLIFTS ON SHORT END OF COUNT AFTER LAST INNING RALLY

By Wones

The Xenia Bayliffs lost to Harshmanville Sunday at Harshmanville, by a 4 to 3 score in a hotly contested game, that marked the second of the series.

There were a number of Xenia fans at the contest and all that were present did not regret they came. The only thing that marred the game was that the home team failed to carry off the bacon.

The Bayliffs were leading 3 to 2 up until the last half of the ninth inning. Koehly hit for Paul and he did a nice job of it as "Peck" caught one of Herman's fast ones on the nose and the blow was good for four knees. This tied the score, at three all. Duffy filed to Leach, Gaylor singled to center. Coy singled to left. Furnace went back after the ball and it seemed as though he hindered Leach from getting it. Nevertheless the ball dropped in fair ground and Gaylor was safe at second while Coy was hugez first. Tewell, Kitty League pitcher and the same lad who twice for the Bayliffs against Yellow Springs came to bat. Tex took a nice cut at the ball driving the agate into right field. His bing-scoring Gaylor and the game was over. Bob Herman was on the rubber for the locals. He was touched up rather freely by the Harshman lunch, who got 14 safe blows, while he fanned seven and walked three. One error was made behind him but this did not lose the game. Foost Clark umpire behind the plate for Harshmanville, and had left his glasses at home and there fore could not see any of Herman's benders that cut the corners of the plate.

Tewell pitched nice ball and was aided quite a bit by the us of emery, which he carried in his pocket. He fanned five while the locals nicked him for ten singles.

Harshman scored first in the fourth round after Duffy grounded out to Early who made a nice stop. Gaylor got in the way of one and took first base. Coy doubled to center advancing Gaylor to third. Tewell hit to Shuey who pulled a bad error of judgment by throwing to Furnace instead of getting Tewell at first. Gaylor interfered but this was all right with the ump and he was safe at third. Cyphers fanned. Conley singled down the third base line and scored Gaylor and Coy. Berlien walked. Wirtz filed to Stiles who made a nice catch.

The Bayliffs made a nice come-back in the seventh inning which netted them three runs. Leach whiffed. Stiles doubled and Catton singled to right. Herman took three strikes. Longnecker singled to right scoring Stiles while Catton took second. Early singled to deep right which put Catton on third. Furnace singled to center scoring Catton and Longnecker. Early was out at third. Berlien to Cyphers.

Both teams battled on almost even terms until the ninth which proved fatal for Bayliffs' athletes. Tucker was out of the contest with a bruised hand and Shuey took his place at first and filled it well.

Joe Longnecker was the big noise with the ash for the locals. This lad got three bingles out of five trips to the plate and also played nice ball at second accepting four chances with only one fluke. The entire Bayliff team got a hit with the exception of Herman. Early played a whale of a game for the locals at short. He had five chances without the sign or a wobble. Kavanaugh made three nice catches in centerfield for the local nine.

Duffy, Coy, Tewell and Peck Koehly were the mainstays with the ash for the Harshman bunch. Koehly knocked a homer and Duffy and Coy each got three hits, two of them being good for two bases. Tewell got two safe blows. Coy and Wirtz played best in the field for the winners.

Bayliff and Sam Harshman flipped a coin Sunday night that decided that the rub-off of the series will be played at Washington Park here next Sunday.

BOWERSVILLE WINS OVER COMMERCIALS IN BATTING FEST

Bowersville hopped out of the "rag weeds" that served as an alibi for the Xenia Commercialists in the first game between these teams and tamed the Xenia Commercialists on a real diamond at Washington Park Sunday.

The game developed into a fiasco in the early frames and when the sixth inning had been reached the score was 23 to 1 with the Bowersville team capped on the high places. After the sixth inning several disgruntled Commercialists left the field, while their places were filled by the Bowersville players and Bowersville regulars began batting "wrong-handed" for the rest of the game.

"Newt" Murrell still had his Babe Ruth bat and clouted out four out of six hits, including a homer over the left field barrier. Wells pitched well, permitting four hits in the five innings he worked while Glass allowed three in four innings. Bowersville will play the Washington Cubs at Bowersville next Sunday and will play Milledgeville the Sunday following at Bowersville. "Red" Snow will pitch for Milledgeville. He is the same lad who pitched for Buena Vista this season.

RESERVES DEFEAT CLARKSVILLE HERE IN EXCITING GAME

The Xenia Reserves defeated Clarksville Sunday afternoon at Reserve Park 7 to 5, as the wind up of a pitchers' duel between Weaver, the locals' crack hurler and Wysong of the visitors.

The visiting flinger sent 12 of the Reserves back to the dugout on strikes while he permitted but seven hits and walked two. Weaver was particularly strong in the pinches, and granted but five hits, fanning eight visiting batters.

A four run lead piled up by the Reserves in the second greatly helped the Reserves. DeAtley whiffed, but F. Hatfield singled and advanced when Osborne dropped Milburn's third strike, both being safe. Green singled scoring Hatfield. S. Hatfield was safe on an attempted fielder's choice, and Weaver doubled scoring Milburn and Green. Thompson muffed F. Leahey's loftter while S. Hatfield scored.

Clarksville picked up two in the third. Dwyer fanned but Wysong singled. Osborne walked and Wysong scored on DeAtley's error on Starr's roller. Millner was safe on Milburn's error. Osborne scoring. Reserves added another in their half when F. Hatfield walked and stole second. Milburn sacrificed him to third from where he scored on a passed ball. Clarksville scored once in the fourth and added two runs in the sixth ending the scoring for the visitors. The Reserves broke the tie in the seventh with two more runs and iced the fracas.

The fielding of Green and Weaver's pitching starred for the locals while Millner and Wysong played well for the visitors. The lineups: Clarksville—Osborne, c; Starr, 3b; Millner, lf; Gray, 2b; Thompson, ss; Dodd, cf; Carroll, rf; Dwyer, 1b; Wysong, 1b; Reserves—F. Leahey, cf; E. Leahey, lf; Jacobs, 3b; DeAtley, 1b; F. RED SOX WIN GAME WITH LAST MINUTE RALLY HERE SUNDAY

Going into the ninth frame one run behind, the Xenia Red Sox staged a remarkable comeback in their contest with the Dayton Sweepers at Dickerson Park Sunday afternoon, by evening the count in the last time at bat forcing the fracas into a tenning set-to and winning the game in that stanza.

A flock of goose eggs as long as an arctic night was being hung up along the row of squares that represented the score of the locals on the scoreboard, when the colored boys came to life and staged their dramatic finish to the game. In the meantime the Sweepers had stepped out and swept up one run in the fourth inning that looked as big as a seven-ton truck as the game proceeded with the Red Sox powerless to knot the count.

In the last half of the ninth Davis tied the score, scoring on a contributing error by the opposition. As the teams were playing for the entire gate receipts, the excitement was intense at this stage. "King" Davis, pitching ace for the Red Sox held the visitors scoreless in their half of the tenth stanza and the locals went in and sewed up the fracas in their half. Little Peterman singled to start the half and Webb, the Dayton flash, scored him with a long hit that ended the game.

Davis pitched airtight ball most of the way for the Red Sox, giving the visitors but seven widely scattered hits. The visitors threatened to score only once after counting in the fourth. In the eighth Kappo was hit by a pitched ball and traveled to second on Meinhardt's bunt. Kelly sacrificed him to third but Burba hit into a double play, Porter to Davis, that saved the day.

Porter played a great game for the locals featuring with a sensational catch that looked good for four bases. Peterman played bang-up ball and covered everything in his direction. Davis topped off his performance in the box by permitting but one hit in eight innings winding up a perfect afternoon on the mound.

PAINFULLY INJURED IN AUTO CRASH SATURDAY NIGHT

James Miller, Trebeins, received painful injuries when the Ford car he was driving collided with an automobile driven by H. S. Harris, Dayton, colored World War veteran, on the Dayton and Xenia pike near the Greene County Infirmary Saturday night.

Miller received a gash in the right thigh, his back was sprained and his elbow injured. Harris and five other occupants of the automobile were uninjured. Both machines were badly damaged.

Harris and Robert White, colored, who accompanied him, were arrested by Sheriff Morris Sharp and Deputy John Baughn shortly after the accident. C. O. Miller, father of the injured youth, filed an affidavit charging operation of an automobile while intoxicated against Harris before Magistrate J. E. Jones Monday morning. White was charged with being drunk and was fined $15, and costs when he entered a guilty plea before Magistrate Jones Monday morning.

Miller was picked up by passers-by after the accident and taken home and Dr. W. A. Galloway of this city, attended his injuries.

CHURCH TO CONDUCT WEEK END MISSION

Beginning September 26th, an intensive evangelistic campaign called a Week End Mission, will be held in the First Baptist Church in this city, the campaign to consist of a series of special meetings which will begin Wednesday evening, Sept. 26 and continue over the following Sunday.

Dr. C. H. Stull, the Superintendent of Evangelism of the Baptist churches of Ohio, will have charge of the services and will be assisted by three of four other ministers and evangelistic singers. The services each evening will consist of two short sermons and a fine song service.

The meetings will be evangelistic in character and will be like the Week End Missions which have been conducted in other Baptist churches throughout the State, in which efforts are made to concentrate in a few days the work usually done in two or three weeks under the name of a protracted meeting. The company of evangelistic workers that will come here is the same that has conducted the Missions in other parts of the State and services of exceptional interest are expected.

DRIVERS OF SCHOOL TRUCKS ONLY 18

An opinion, received from Prosecuting Attorney, J. Kenneth Williamson, by County School Superintendent H. C. Aultman, overthrows the general opinion, in regard to the employment of auto drivers, under the age of 21 years.

The belief has been that the recent law, regulating bus drivers, would also apply to school truck drivers.

Prosecuting Attorney Williamson's opinion, and that of the Attorney General is that the law does not apply to school drivers. The age of 18 years is considered legal and in cases where the County Board of Education, and County Superintendent are satisfied, certificates may be issued to a boy of 16 years of age, who is attending High School.

The law requires that all drivers, and teachers as well, shall receive certificates, by the County Educational Board. The certificates are issued on the recommendation of the local Superintendent, and the local board, with the statement that the bond of the driver was approved by them.

MAIL DELIVERY FOR YELLOW SPRINGS

Postmaster C. C. Stephenson of Yellow Springs, received a wire from Washington, Saturday, stating, that beginning the first of August, that village would receive the benefits of city mail delivery.

The installation of the new system depends upon Mr. Stephenson's ability to have the houses of the village completely numbered and all the streets named. One carrier will be appointed to distribute the mail through the village, making two trips a day, it is thought. The village has a population of about 1,400.

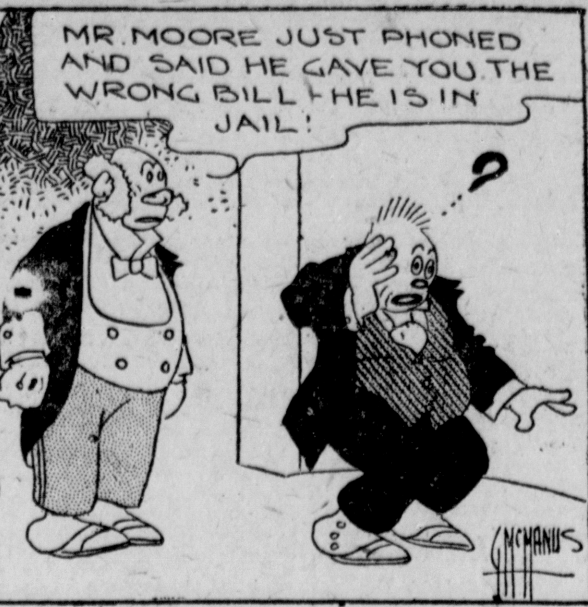

Previously Yellow Springs residents have been compelled to call at the Post Office daily for their mail. Residents of the village have been working for some time to secure the city delivery service.

PRESIDENT MORGAN SPEAKER.

Mr. Morgan is to be one of the speakers at the meeting, which opens Tuesday. Chief Justice William H. Taft is president of the conference.

BRINGING UP FATHER

NEW SYSTEM FOR ENDING TRUANCY IN COUNTY STARTED

A new system of discovering and preventing truancy, throughout the schools of Greene County, was taken up for action, and decided upon, at a meeting of the County Board of Education, held at the office of County Superintendent of Schools, H. C. Aultman Friday.

In taking up the new attendance law requiring the appointment of an officer and assistants to cover the county to prevent truancy, it was found that some of the counties are spending from $2,000 to $5,000 for this service, according to County Superintendent Aultman. The county board, decided at the meeting to save this amount by appointing the County Superintendent and all other superintendents and principals to do this work, in connection with their other duties and to do it without extra salary, compensation, or cost of any kind.

This will mean quite an increase of work for the superintendents, according to Mr. Aultman, especially in the larger districts. The law provides that the County Superintendent shall take the general direction and responsibility for the work.

Those appointed on the board are H. C. Aultman, D. H. Barnes, county and assistant superintendent; D. S. Lynn, Rath Consolidated; S. E. Shupp, Clifton; L. D. Parker, Cedarville; W. F. Roush, Ross Township; J. W. Gowdy, Jamestown; W. A. Driscoll, Bowersville; H. L. Sams, Caesar Creek; Mr. McKaig, Spring Valley; C. Wright, Bellbrook; E. O. Barr, Yellow Springs.

FINED IN POLICE COURT

Wayne Baker, Springfield, was fined $2 and costs in Police Court when he was arraigned on charge of driving on the wrong side of a traffic post Sunday night. Patrolman Simms and Thompson brought Baker and a party of two men and three women to Police Headquarters on the charge.

DONATIONS GIVEN FOR RELIEF WORK

Three hundred and fifty two dollars was voluntarily contributed Saturday to the Japanese Relief fund, Chapter of the American Red Cross, Mrs. Lewis M. Allison, chairman, announced Monday.

"The results are most pleasing," said Mrs. Allison, "in view of the fact that no campaign is being made. No one is being solicited, and all money has been voluntarily given and there have been persons in the stores to receive donations only one day."

"The churches and towns in the county have not yet reported."

ECLIPSE OF SUN WILL BE VISIBLE

Xenians were busy Monday morning smoking up glasses and pieces of window glass preparing to see the total eclipse of the sun scheduled to be visible here between 3:30 and 5:35 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The eclipse, as visible here will be only partial but about 40 per cent of the surface of the sun will be covered from the angle of vision in this section, it is said. The patch of the total obstruction will be 105 miles wide and the central line will pass among the islands over the coast of Southern California, the only state where the total eclipse will be visible.

MOTORIST DRIVES CAR INTO BRIDGE

Dick Bell, Wilmington, had no further use for his automobile after it was run "smack dab" into the center abutment of the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge over South Detroit Street Saturday evening.

Bell evidently ignored a red danger reflector on the abutment for he steered his car directly at the bulls eye offered by the reflector and scored perfectly. He then wandered away from the machine. Chief of Police M. E. Graham had the machine removed from the street to the Gordon Bros. Garage.

K. K. K. MEMBERS PARADE STREETS OF SPRINGFIELD

Springfield, O., Sept. 10.—Members of the Ku Klux Klan from more than four states paraded through the downtown streets here Saturday night in full regalia as the crowning feature of a meeting which began at the fair grounds at 1:30 p. m. Following the parade the initiation of a number of candidates took place at the fair grounds and a fireworks display took place.

The day passed quietly. There were no demonstrations against the Klan at the fair grounds or during the parade and no accidents of consequence resulted from the tripled traffic which crowded the city until late.

The only interruption to the huge parade of robed men and women Saturday night came when someone turned in a false fire alarm. Apparatus was rushed to High and Limestone Streets, one of the principal corners of the city.

It is estimated that several hundred Greene County members of the organization participated in the parade, Saturday evening. Special cars and machines carried Greene County Klansmen and curious spectators to Springfield during the day. Estimates of the number in the parade are placed around 10,000. It required over an hour for the parade to pass the intersection of Limestone and Main Streets.

OLD TOWN

The Ladies Aid Society of the Old Town Church will have a business meeting Tuesday at 2 o'clock. All members are asked to be present.

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

CHAPTER XXIII

Paul had been fairly regular in going into town, and the next morning George Markham stopped by and called to know if he were ready.

"I'm thinking of buying a car," he said, "and thought I would patronize a neighbor."

"Buy it where you like, Markham. I severed my connection with the Maynard people yesterday. I have something more to my liking in view," Paul told him nonchalantly.

Markham gave him a curious look, made some sort of a reply and hurried on. I felt embarrassed, dared hardly look at Paul. I was sure he had nothing in view, knew he was bluffing as usual. Paul never hesitated to lie; yet so far as I knew his lies never hurt anyone but himself, and because we belonged to him, me, and the children.

Logan had urged Paul to stick to his job.

Suddenly all my fears, all my doubts of the man were swept away. He was a good friend, and a wise one. Paul would have done well to listen to him.

"What shall you do now, Paul?" I asked. "Have you really something in view?"

"It was none of Markham's business," he replied, so confirming my suspicions. "I'll get something more to my taste. Thinking I would be a common salesman! The nerve of those men."

"But there's nothing belittling in selling," I replied.

"There is to me. With my advantages of education and travel I won't be classed with men who stand and beg people to buy of them. Now, for heaven's sake, get rid of that dying look. You aren't handsome enough to risk drawing your mouth down at the corners."

I flushed, but made no retort. Paul was very apt to take his humor out upon me in this way. But I was worried, anxious. We had been getting along so nicely, and now I was perhaps to go through another hard time. As the children grew older they required more, and I felt almost sure Paul had saved nothing. I asked him:

"Haven't I told you I'd attend to the finances," he returned. "I will do so. Well, I'll be getting into town. I may not be out tonight, so don't sit up."

He had been gone but a little while when the telephone rang. To my surprise it was Dave Logan. He asked for Paul, and when I told him he had gone into town, he said: "I'm sorry he gave up his position, Mrs. Norwood, but don't worry. I'll look around and see if I can't help him find something more congenial."

"You are a true friend," I replied feeling I spoke the truth. "I am worried, more than Paul imagines. There was no use, no need, to pretend to so good a friend."

Evelyn came over, the next day. Paul had not returned and when she repeated what George had told her, that Paul had a better position in view, I couldn't help giving her a part of my confidence. I told her I was anxious, that Paul was foolishly averse to holding a position he thought beneath him. Then I spoke of Logan, told her of his kindness, his good advice to Paul.

"He has nothing to gain, Evelyn. The man must have been maligned. He has been kindness itself to us." "You mustn't believe in people being so single-minded. Ruby, she re-dying look. You aren't handsome enough to risk drawing your mouth

It's too bad Paul couldn't get some literary work to do. The failure of the publishers to appreciate his book must have been a blow to him. But there are so many ways in which he might use his talent, especially now when it looks as if he might be drawn into war."

"You don't believe we will be, do you?" I asked.

"George seems to think so." "I shall be glad my children are girls, and that Paul is too old to go if it should come," I replied.

"Then we talked of other things. Evelyn before she left urging me not to worry, yet I thought she was troubled on my account. She kissed me warmly when she left saying: 'Remember always that I am your friend, Ruby, no matter what happens.'"

I returned her kiss and after she left pondered long on what she had said. "No matter what happens." What did she expect, or fear?

No More Fooling

NOWHERE did Abraham Lincoln show his shrewdness of judgment to better effect than in that famous utterance which ended, "You can't fool all the people all the time."

In the past, there were a few misguided advertisers who thought they could sell their wares better by misrepresentation. But those advertisers have long since gone out of business or mended their ways. Hard experience taught that Lincoln was right. Untruthful advertising doesn't pay.

Other advertisers proved that the only way to advertise successfully, make regular customers and build up public goodwill was to tell the absolute truth about their goods.

So, you can be sure that every consistently advertised product is good. The advertising test has proved it. The very fact that it is advertised is your best warranty of satisfaction and true quality.

The concern that tells you frankly what it is doing is a good concern with which to do business. That is why it pays to read the advertisements, to patronize advertisers, and to buy advertised merchandise.
